Welcome to BSD Faculty Update

By Christa Modschiedler and Deb Werner

Welcome to the first issue of Crerar Library News: BSD Faculty Update, an occasional newsletter that provides updates on Library services and resources. We would like to hear your comments. Please email us at biomed@lib.uchicago.edu with any questions you may have about the library's resources and services, or with any comments and suggestions about this newsletter.

The John Crerar Library has changed its operating hours from 24-hours a day to:

- Sunday–Thursday 8:00 a.m. to 1:00 a.m.
- Friday & Saturday 8:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m.

Calendar of Events

Library Workshops and Instruction

The Library offers workshops all year. Check out the Library Events Calendar to find upcoming workshops. Schedule a Library instruction session for your class or set up an individual session to learn more about a specific resource or the Library's range of resources in your field.

Darwin Exhibit

<http://www.lib.uchicago.edu/e/crerar/exhibits/Darwin.html>

The John Crerar Library presents Chicago Celebrates Darwin, an exhibit which revisits the Darwin Centennial Celebration hosted by the University in 1959. Exhibit runs through March 26, 2010.

Featured Service

New copiers/scanners/printers

The Library has new copiers that also scan, print, and will soon fax. Color printing and copying is $0.15/page; black and white printing and copying is $0.10/page. There is now a small charge, $0.02/page, for scanning. Read more about the new copiers at <https://printing.uchicago.edu/>.

Featured Resources

EcoSal: Escherichia Coli and Salmonella: Cellular and Molecular Biology

<http://proxy.uchicago.edu/login?url=http://www.ecosal.org/> [American Society for Microbiology]

Previously issued in print as Escherichia Coli and Salmonella: Cellular and Molecular Biology, this electronic resource contains continually expanded, updated, and revised content on the enteric bacterial cell, including data, datasets, images, and hot-linked bibliographic references.

AMA Manual of Style Online: A guide for Authors and Editors

<http://www.amamanualofstyle.com.proxy.uchicago.edu//oso/public/index.html>

Based on the print 10th edition of the AMA Manual of Style, the online version includes "all the content available in the print edition, along with periodic updates, tips of the month, sophisticated search capabilities, and extensive cross-linking." [Publisher's description]

DynaMed

<http://proxy.uchicago.edu/login?url=http://search.ebscohost.com/login.aspx?authtype=ip,uid&profile=dynamed>

Evidence-based online resource containing 2,000 topic summaries of diseases, disorders, and symptoms, with information on etiology, associated conditions, history and research findings, differential diagnosis, diagnostic testing, prognosis, treatment, prevention, and patient information.

New Acquisitions

Latest additions to the biomedical collection

New University of Chicago library-wide acquisitions lists are found at <http://www.lib.uchicago.edu/e/newbooks/>.

New lists are created two weeks after the end of a month and are arranged by Library of Congress Classification (LC). Each monthly list can be accessed by:

- Subject (e.g., Q=Science, R=Medicine, S=Agriculture)
- Format (e.g. electronic, films, videos, DVDs, slides, etc.)
- Campus library location (e.g., Crerar, D'Angelo Law, Social Service Administration)
