

Collection Highlights Section 1
(Registrator Room 209)

Section 1 of ACASA consists of books and periodicals listed in Letish Jewish's Czechs and Slovaks in North America Bibliography (New York, 1976). These materials are located in Registrator Room 209, arranged in numerical order, as assigned in the Jewish Bibliography. It is estimated that ACASA has approximately 43% of the 1,000 titles listed in the bibliography, including manuscripts, if incomplete, holdings for the more than 300 periodicals identified as being published outside of Czechoslovakia 1800-1975. On display are:

- Memorial booklets in honor of President T. G. Masaryk, president of Czechoslovakia from its founding in 1918 until 1934, on the occasion of the 80th, 90th and 95th anniversary celebrations of his birth. [Item no. 40-81]
- Válka za nezávislost: Povstání amerických osadníků proti Angli [The War for Independence: The Uprising of American Colonists Against England]. Compiled by J. Cernak. Chicago: NAKA, knihkupci Ang. Orlingera, 1896. 118p., 36 [Item no. 1200]
- Padesátileté jubileum českého národního hnutí v Chicagu Illinois [The 50 Year Jubilee of the Czech National Cause in Chicago]. J. J. Jelínek, comp. Chicago, IL: Turk, Majdloch & Co., 1927. 319p. [Item no. 1244]
- Hábi, Mario. A Short History of the Czechoslovak People in Canada. Toronto: Across-Canada Press, 1955. 15p. [Item no. 1225]
