[This encyclopedia of Russian women of the 20th century consists of 492 articles by 243 authors, equivalent to 7,000 pages of text on all aspects of women's lives—social, political, legal, economic, and cultural. Although the work focuses on the 20th century (both the Soviet and the Post-Soviet eras), there is also much material on the Pre-Revolutionary era. Each article has both chronological and thematic links to related material and there is an interactive chronology of key events from 1791-1996, as well as interactive name and author indexes and a interactive list of key words and concepts, defined in depth. Also included is a filmography and video of film clips, with commentary by Elena Stishova.]
