

10
Colonial Village

Number of UNK EBENEZER'S

TINY MAGAZINE

4446 Clifton Ave., Chicago

OCTOBER 1934

5 CENTS A COPY

OLD
NORTH CHURCH

OLD NORTH CHURCH

Colonial Village

Number of UNK EBENEZER'S

TINY MAGAZINE

16 Pages A Month 50 Cents A YEAR

KLEVER 'N' KLEEN

"JEST FER FUN"

Published at

Alfalfa Corners (4446 Clifton Ave., Chicago, Ill.)

By UNK EBENEZER and 100 NABERS

Wit, Wisdom, Humor, Verse, Jokes, Cartoons

Our Platform PRACTICE GOLDEN RULE

THE COLONIAL VILLAGE

Drop back 300 years, visit the Pilgrim Settlement and stroll thru ye old streets and lanes and visit the many historical spots of the Revolutionary War period.

Watch the games and sports on Village Green, dine and see a fine floor show in Virginia Dare Tavern.

Call on the Artists Colony and take home a real souvenir portrait of yourself.

The COLONIAL VILLAGE is the most Natural, Restful, Entertaining and American spot of the 1934 World's Fair.

THE ARTISTS COLONY

In its somewhat secluded location in back of Mount Vernon has proven one of the most attractive features of the Fair. Its popularity is well deserved, the artists are all established portrait painters of reputation and have produced during the Fair season 28,000 genuine likenesses of visitors.

Artists affiliated with enterprise the entire season are as follows: :

Paul von Klieben, 1008 N. Dearborn—Portrait Artist.

A. V. Alegre, 225 Huron St.—Sketch Artist.

R. Fayerweather, 58 E. Washington St.—Sketch Artist.

Irene Bianucci, 867 N. Dearborn St.—Sketch Artist.
 Calvin C. Bailey, 6010 South Parkway, Sketch Artist.
 Corina Melder Collier, Western Springs—Sketch Artist.
 Helen Crain, 1629 Oak Ave., Evanston—Metal Work.
 Jose De La Cruz,, 808 N. Wabash, Sketch Artist.
 Selene Diamond, 3244 Haddon Ave.—Silhouette Cutter.
 Dan Dickey, 5115 Cornell Ave.—Sketch Artist.
 M. J. Drapp, 1373 E. 55th St.—Oil Paintings.
 R. R Epperly, 75 E. Wacker Drive—Sketch Artist.
 Matthew Falk, 2731 North Drake—Sketch Artist.
 Ernest Fredericks, 9 W. Washington St.—Oil Paintings.
 Mildred Lyon Hetherington, 10153 Prospect—Sketch Artist.
 Charles E. Kellner, 763 Bittersweet, Sketch Artist.
 Benjamin Kelmar, 420 Melrose—Sketch Artist.
 Paul R. Kreger, 411 Linden, Wilmette—Sketch Artist.
 Helen Lindlev, 4715 Beacon St.—Sketch Artist.
 Violet Orth, 6546 S. Albany Ave.—Silhouettes.
 Alma Monfels, 4749 Lake Park Ave., Plastic Art.
 Don Pingitore, 3352 N. Center—Sketch Artist.
 Joe Ponce, 1958 Lincoln Ave.—Sketch Artist.
 Mrs. Kenneth B. Ransley, Park Ridge—Sketch Artist.
 Mr. Frank Ransley, 111 Clinton, Park Ridge—Sketch Artist.
 Miss Kay Ransley, 111 Clinton, Park Ridge—Sketch Artist.
 Elvin Stupe, 3320 Belle Plain Ave.—Oil Paintings.
 Vivian Stark, 4554 Oakenwald Ave.—Sketch Artist.
 Harold Storer, 1580 Sherman Ave.—Sketch Artist.
 John N. Vogel, 3255 Belden Ave.—Sketch Artist.
 Mrs. Gunda Witteck, 1230 Cornelia—Oil and Water Painting.
 Edward Warner, Chesterton, Ind.—Sketch Artist.
 Margaret Walker, 1315 Elmwood, Wilmette—Sketch Artist.
 H. Parker Watt, 163 E. Ontario S.—Sketch Artist.
 Robert Delson, 4337 S. Halsted St.—Portrait Painter.
 Ellida Sutton, 1819 Lawrence Ave., Sketch Artist.

THE ARTISTS STUDIO

Here is an unusual opportunity for Fair visitors to watch the distinguished artist, Robert Delson, of New York, painting from life the famous Greenwich Village artist model, Miss Carrie Mae.

AMERICAN GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY

Located in Old North Church. Was organized by a group of public-spirited citizens of authentic American lineage for the purpose of furnishing its members complete and authentic genealogical data. Enrollment in this Society is $1.00

There are but 23 families that can be traced back to the Mayflower Landing in 1620.

ANTIQUÉ JEWELRY SHOP

Near Village Well, Mr. Ludwig of New York has a large and select stock of Real Dresden Figures, Vases, Lamps, Plate, Rugs, Old Firearms, Coral, Amber and Pearl Jewelry suitable for gifts and souvenirs. Prices greatly reduced.

ALL NATION STAMP COMPANY

In Franklin Print Shop, a complete stock of stamps for the beginner and advanced collector. Assorted packs 10c to $4.00. 1000 mixed 35c. Send for Free Fall Bulletin and Price List.

ALICE EVANGELINE

Mystic Seer and Psychic Reader, veranda of Governor's Mansion. Visit her for advice, guidance, and a demonstration of psychic powers.

BEREA COLLEGE STUDENTS INDUSTRIES

In Governor's Mansion, two Berea students, Bill Dawn and Howard Keith, have a large stock of hand made woodcraft, fancy brooms, weaving, needlework, mountain sweets, toys, puzzles, etc., made by students of this famous industrial and educational center. Watch the students work.

BEN FRANKLIN PRESS

At south end of Village is a typical building of the Franklin period. The shop has an Old Ben Franklin Hand Press as well as modern equipment.

Ben Franklin Almanacs, Village Guides, Post Cards, and other printed novelties are for sale, as well as October number of TINY MAGAZINE, done by Mr. Bradley, Ye Old Tyme Printer.

BEN FRANKLIN BOOK SHOP

Historical Books, Rockwell Series, Washington and Lincoln Books, World's Fair Maps, Guides and Views. Art Institute Masterpieces. Also featuring the New Spiral Scrap Book Binder. Ask to see it demonstrated.

THE BERKSHIRE LOOMS

Located in Governor's Mansion, first originated as a family hobby on a Vermont farm, created from fine materials on a primitive hand loom, faithful reproductions of Colonial design hand woven pieces.

After the Fair articles may be ordered from 115 Campbell St., Geneva, Ill.

BUNDLING SHOW ON COCKLOFT LANE

This amusing little comedy played by a cast of four is based on the old Colonial custom of putting the lovers in bundling clothes and in bed together to save firewood and candles.

Bundling was practiced in New York state as late as 1804 and Pennsylvania until 1845 and still may be found in several parts of U. S. and the old country.

BETSY ROSS SHOP

A faithful reproduction of the famous house built about 1700 and still standing at 239 Arch St. Philadelphia, where Betsy designed and made for Gen. Washington the first American flag. It housed during the Fair many famous relics of the period, also a fine stock of jewelry, souvenirs and novelties of Colonial design.

SIGN OF THE BLUE ANCHOR

Just inside the Main Gate a replica of a Cape Cod General Store, with the largest stock of tapestries, linens, jewelry, gifts and Souvenirs in Colonial Village. All articles being closed out at bargain prices.

Above the Blue Anchor is the Office of the Village.

CHIEF BIG STORM'S SHOP

In Governor's Mansion—Indian Bows, Arrows, Flint Arrow Heads, Indian Bead Necklaces, Bracelets, Rings, Tom Toms, and many other gifts and souvenirs.

The archery range outside, 5 shots for 5 cents, is conducted by Blue Bird. They both take part in the Indian Ceremonial Dances.

COLONIAL VILLAGE CANDIES

South side of Paul Revere House, that good ol' tyme chewing taffy, molasses, chocolate, black-walnut, strawberry and vanilla flavors.

Also delicious Vermont Maple Sugar and pecan pralines. Liberal sized bags and pralines only 10 cents. A real treat.

COLONIAL NOVELTY SHOP

In Governor's Mansion a wide variety of useful and unique gifts, souvenirs and toys for every member of the family, and now at greatly reduced prices. Kabaker & Tatar.

CASSON-CRAFT BAL-SATIN

A new material particularly suited for airplanes, small boats and other multiple needs of the model maker.

Complete boat and airplane kits 25c up. On veranda of Governor's Mansion.

COLONIAL FRUIT SHOP

On veranda of Governor's Mansion, a choice stock of apples, peaches, pears, grapes and other fruit. Also taffy apples, candy bars and nuts.

COLONIAL SILVERSMITHS

Adjoining vestry of Old North Church, a very complete line of Colonial hand made jewelry and gifts of silver. The 25c grab box is proving popular.

COLONIAL KITCHEN

In this replica of the famous Martha Curtis Kitchen (still standing) Florence Whalen serves real home cooking and baking.

The most popular spot in Village, for a good, quick light lunch.

COLONIAL LINEN SHOP

In the House of Seven Gables, a large assortment of fine Laces, Doilies, Luncheon Sets, Table Cloths, Napkins, Handkerchiefs, Center Pieces, Pillow Covers, Bed Spreads, Guest Towels etc.

DUNGEON OF TORTURES

Beheading block and ax, stock and pillory, screw torture, kneeling board, rack, whipping post and other examples of Medieval Man's inhumanity to man. Seats and competent lecturer Near Boston State House.

FLEMISTER HANDCRAFTS. DALTON, GA.

Located in Governor's Mansion. Hand hooked rugs, mats, candlewick spreads, made by southern mountain women. A native art handed down from Colonial days.

Special for Xmas Gifts.

COLONIAL VILLAGE ENTERTAINMENTS

- 2:30—INDIAN CEREMONIAL DANCES
On the Village Greer
- 3:30—MUSICAL SELECTIONS
Bradford Smith and Boys on Village Green
- 4:15—PAGEANT OF THE DRUMS
Colonial Girls on The Village Green
Drum Drill
Colonial Rhythm Drumming
"America, The Melting Pot of the World."
- 5:00—MAYPOLE AND COUNTRY DANCES
Village Girls on The Green
- 6:15 INDIAN GREEN CORN DANCE
On Village Green
- 7:00—MODERN FLOOR SHOW
Village Girls in The Tavern
- 8:00—INDIAN FIRE DANCE
- 9:00—MODERN FLOOR SHOW
On Village Green
Village Girls in The Tavern
- 10:00—INDIAN DANCES OF WAR AND DEFLANCE
On Village Green
- 10:00—FLOOR SHOW AND DANCING TILL CLOSING
In The Tavern

Entertainments produced under Personal Supervision of
MR. HOWARD TOOLEY
Chief Radio Announcer, MR. WALTER KING
During inclement weather all entertainments held in
Virginia Dare Tavern

All costumes designed and made by BERNYCE FENEY
VIRGINIA DARE TAVERN

Named after the first white child born at Jamestown, is modeled after the Raleigh Tavern in Williamsburg. Excellent dinners and lunches served, also Virginia Dare wine, beer and choice liqueurs. An exceptionally fine floor show and dancing 9 P.M. till closing.

YE VERANDA JEWELRY SHOP

Aside Paul Revere House features a fine line of souvenirs and costume jewelry in many designs and mountings.

MOUNT VERNON

North of Village Green is eight-ninths size of Washington's Virginia Home. It is owned and maintained by the Mount Vernon Ladies Association of the Union, founded in 1853.

Mount Vernon has been presided over at the Fair by Illinois members of Daughters of the American Revolution. admittance fee goes to help finish the Lincoln Monument being erected by Illinois D.A.R. at Lincoln Memorial Bridge,

THE VILLAGE GIRLS

FRITZIE LUHR, Drum Major and Acrobatic Dancer.
MARY TIMMS, Champion Drummer of Northwest Side.
TRUDY LEE, Acrobatic and Tap Dancer
MARY LELAND and MARTHA MILLER, Toe Dancers
IVY HOIM, MARY COLLINS, VIRGINIA SPRINGER,
Tap Dancers.
FREDDA SMITH, FLORENCE STAPLETON, MARTHA FLOYD, Tap Dancers
MARY VAN ZANDT and CESALIA CLARK, Drummers
VIRGINIA and LEONORE SWANSON, Buglers
DOROTHY WILEY, Flag Bearer
GENEVIEVE MISTEE, Trumpeter
VIRGINIA SPRINGER, At Gate

MAJ. E. R. TORREY—82, G. A. R. Drummer

VILLAGE BAND BOYS

BRADFORD SMITH, Band Leader
JOSEPH MARGRAFF, Violin DICK PEYTON, Trumpet
IRVING MARGRAFF, Piano A. H. JONES, Saxophone
JOHNNY JONES, Drums and Master of Ceremonies

INDIAN CEREMONIAL DANCERS

BIG STORM, Cherokee, Oklahoma
BLUE BIRD, Pueblo, Arizona
VISITING CLOUD, Winnebago, Wisconsin
WHITE CLOUD, Winnebago, Wisconsin
BLACKHAWK, Chevenne, Oklahoma

COLONIAL GUARDS

GERALD STEARN RAY TAYLOR TASKER DAY

THE GROG SHOP

On Cock Loft Lane, a locality in Old Knickerbocker New York, with its figure of "Uncle Toby" in the Staffordshire manner.

The Colonial Bar Maids serve beer, liqueurs, coffee and lunches.

THE HANDKERCHIEF BOX

Near the Village Well, Harriet McChandless offers some very beautiful chiffon hand painted powder puffs, handkerchiefs, scarves and sweet grass pocket-books as low as 25c.

THE HOUSE OF SEVEN GABLES

On Meeting Street across from Old North Church is a reproduction with liberties of the Early American House built in Salem and made famous in Hawthorne's novel.

Count the gables.

INFORMATION BOOTH

Opposite Main Gate on veranda of Governor's Mansion offers Post Cards, Fair and Village Guides, Fair Passports, Maps, Pictures etc.

Sue Thompson will cheerfully give you information about any spot or event of the Village.

JOE THE VILLAGE MONKEY

Joe is all over the Village and is entertaining Fair visitors for the second season. He is a 6 year old ring tail, unusually clever and well trained. His owner purchased him for $300 and he is worth it.

JACQUELINE CERAMIC SHOP

Located in the Governor's Mansion—offers an exceptionally fine collection of imported Dresden China gifts and novelties. Chicago Shop—85 East Lake, near Michigan.

THE MAYFLOWER SHOP

In the Governor's Mansion, a very fine collection of solid brass and copper articles which create a desire for possession. Nowhere can you get so much for your money in style, material and workmanship.

THE NUT AND CANDY SHOP

Opposite Old North Church, features fresh made blanched nut meats, taffy apples and anise candy. Also root beer and all kinds of candy bars.

OLD PRINTS AND ETCHINGS

In Franklin Print Shop, Mr. Gerritt Vanderhooght of 516 Fine Arts Building, 410 South Michigan, displays a very fine collection of Etchings, Color Prints, Paintings, Lithographs, and a few copies of Abraham Lincoln Biography and Wood Blocks by Charles Turzak.

OLD NORTH CHURCH

South end of Village, the tower is exact replica, the portico not authentic, Christ's Church, Boston was built in 1723. From the belfry were hung the signal lanterns that spurred Paul Revere on his immortal ride on April 18, 1775.

THE PILGRIM SETTLEMENT

Opposite the Village Well and back of Betsy Ross House will be found replicas of Miles Standish House, Old School House, Priscilla House, John Allen House and a Diorama of Landing of Mayflower. Of the 105 Pilgrims one-half perished the first winter.

THE COLONIAL SOAP FACTORY

The Pilgrims believed in cleanliness as well as Godliness. A typical outdoor Soap Factory is shown with the following sign:

"Old Tyme Soap Receipt, The great difficulty in making soap came in the want of judgment of the strength of the lye. If your lye will bear up an egg or a potato so you can see a piece of the surface as large as a ninepence, it is just strong enough."

WORLD'S FAIR POETRY MART

The only literary exhibit at the Fair is the POETRY MART in Colonial Village located north of Mount Vernon.

Displayed on several large green panels adjoining ARTIST'S COLONY you will find original poems from many Chicago and country wide Poets.

What would make a more fitting gift or souvenir of the Fair, than a poem typed by your favorite BARD, on attractive World's Fair Poetry Mart stationery, for 25 cents.

Poets exhibiting October first were:

Millv Walton, Chicago.

Fan C. Smith, Chicago.

Clara Edmunds Hemingway, Chicago.

Ella M. Sprouse (E. M. S.), Chicago

A. F. Meserve (Unk Ebenezer), Chicago
 Georgia I. Heinemann (Judgie), Chicago
 Francis Lambert McCrudden, New York
 Besty Mann Collins, Greensburg, Pa.
 Eloise Copper Mackey, Belleville, Ill.
 Paul Dennis, Springfield, Mo.
 Thomas Balata (Tommy Sheau), Chicago.
 Florence Cain (Prima Donna), Chicago
 William Wade, Beckely, W. Va.
 Maurette of Wilmette, Wilmette, Ill.
 G. A. Kimber (Glendower), Chicago
 R. A. Conklin (Gravity Bill), Chicago
 W. L. Dennis (The Sage), Chicago
 Winifred Gaedt, (Cubby), Chicago
 Ivy M. Oberg, Chicago.
 Mary C. Brennan (Belle O'Shandon), Chicago
 Letitia Murphy, Chicago
 Effie Leaton Cahill, Chicago
 Virginia Baitinger, Gary, Ind.
 Emma Barr Tosch, Chicago.
 Bruce Fennell, Lansing, Mich.
 Sophia I. Orr, Munster, Ind.
 Hilda Butler Fahr, Chicago
 Leon V. Gaylor, Imlay, Mich.
 Ethelyn Bryant Chapman, Chicago
 Hurley Lee Ragon, Lowell, Ind.
 Margaret J. Marquart, Valparaiso, Ind
 Margaret Lackerby Richards, Chicago
 Laure E. Gilfallan, Chicago
 Sigrid Sutton
 Mrs. Sophia Willits, Chicago
 R. P. Luck, Chicago (Out O' Luck)
 Mrs. Mary Brandes, Belleville, Ill. "Maid of Steel."

SIGN OF THE SUN DIAL

Represents the vigorous style of Sir Christopher Wren, located opposite Old North Church. It houses the Old Curiosity Shop with a stock of gifts and novelties.

OLD STATE HOUSE BOSTON

Inside this famous old building is a remarkable exhibit conceived and constructed by Mrs. Chas. W. Clark of Brooklyn. Five life size and life like wax figures of presidents Washington, Jefferson, Lincoln, Cleveland and Theodore Roosevelt rise to their feet, and give a short talk when introduced by Thomas F. Bayard, Secretary of State under Cleveland. This exhibit should not be overlooked, it is really worth while.

WORLD'S PREMIER SILHOUETTE ARTIST

Nancy Van Court, the "Village Cut-up", aside the Paul Revere House has for the past two years delighted thousands of visitors with her wonderful display and clever cutting of silhouettes. Her work must be seen to be appreciated.

THE PAUL REVERE HOUSE

In 1802 Paul Revere rolled the first sheets of copper and brass in America (before this time it all came from English Mills) and established The Revere Copper and Brass Co.

This company with branches thruout America has made Revere House at the Fair as close as possible to the original. A wonderful exhibit of copper and brass ware and many photostatic copies of original letters may be found here.

PAUL REVERE SILVERSMITHS

John P. Petterson and Albert B. Dahlquist demonstrate in the kitchen of Revere House the Silversmith Art, following the tradition of Paul Revere who was Colonial America's most famous Silversmith.

All articles shown were made by Mr. Petterson of Chicago, a master craftsman in Society of Crafts, Boston.

WORLD'S LARGEST CALENDAR

Built by Royal Lee, San Diego, located beside The Village Well, will by turning a dial give you instantly any date from 1844 to 1956. A small size sells for $1.00.

THE WAYSIDE INN

Modeled after the famous Wayside Inn at Sudberg, Mass., built in 1685, immortalized by Longfellow in "Tales Of A Wayside Inn." Colonial type meals served.

SOUTHWEST POTTERY

In Governor's Mansion, Mexican and Pueblo Indian pottery and hand-made wire jewelry by Pablo Tapey Crosby.

WAKEFIELD — WASHINGTON'S BIRTHPLACE

Exact replica of this famous house which with all its furnishings were destroyed by fire a number of years ago. Many of the articles in the one room are genuine antiques.

Ginger bread and cookies from Mary Washington's (George's mother) 200 year old receipt are being made and served gratis.

STANDISH COPPERSMITHS

Under eaves of Old North Church is this interesting shop, old genuine Colonial bed warmers, whaling vessel lanterns, pewter, silver and copper pieces from Cape Cod.

Also full rigged ships patiently assembled in glass bottles by the old salts themselves.

THE VILLAGE SMITHY

Pat Mahoney for fifty-five years
Has hammered out horse shoes,
Wagon tires and other gears.

The SMITHY is a reproduction in every detail of an old fashioned Blacksmith Shop, with the hand operated bellows, anvils, hammers, tongs, water tub, etc.

Drop in and watch Pat hammer out of iron rods the many useful and ornamental articles his assistant offers for sale at a very nominal price.

YE VILLAGE PHOTOGRAPHER

See Sam Minkin on the Village Green for Ye Old Tyme Tintypes and Buttons, the kind that do not fade.

THE WITCHES CAVE

Located in House of Seven Gables, is the most outstanding concession of its kind in the Fair, with its Famous Scientific Readers of National Reputation.

Neva McCleod Ruth, Ps.D. India Carewe, and Prof. Downie.

"The Spirit That Wins"

Spirit of '76

Compliments of

KIMBERKORK
"It Preserves Freshness"

Kimberkork Co.

2041-43 N. CICERO AVE.,
CHICAGO

