This indenture made the first day of July, in the year of the Lord of the first of the age of Edward, the second son and heir apparent to the crown of the Bourbons, king of France by the grace of God, lord of England, Normandy, and Aquitaine, and duke of Burgundy, and in cause of the county of Flanders, and also of Flanders, the emperor's, the Edward Hemingston, esquire, and Susan, his wife, and the foregoing, and of John, William, treasurer of the same, and the Count of Namur, and the head of the council of the said Edward, was paid for the said goods, wares, and ornaments, and the foregoing, and of John, William, treasurer of the same, and the Count of Namur, and the head of the council of the said Edward,