Walter, son of Thomas de Writham, gives quitclaim for himself & his heirs to Peter, son of Robert de Burgate, Knight, & his heirs, in two pieces of land in Burgate, one lying between road called Holgateseye on one side & abutting on one side on land of Peter, & counted as one acre & other between land of Peter on one side & abutting on land formerly of Robert de Boxstede & contains half an acre. Witnesses: Thomas de Kyynham, John de Hanburgh, Reginald de Wotton, John le Ferre, Henry le Breton, William le Keu, Martin de Tynefield, & others. Dated, Monday after Feast of St. Lucy the Virgin, 31st year of Edward, son of Henry. Seal lost. null