Hec est finalis concordia facta in Curia Domini Regis apud Westm. a die sancti Johannis Baptistae in quindecim diebus. Humo Regni Regis Edwardi filii Regis Edwardi secundi. Coram Willmo de Bevesford. Lanulco de Chesham. Henrico de Grantcon. a Henrico Le Scap. Justic. et aliis Domini Regis fidelibus tunc ibi presentibus. Inter Johannem de Balam. et Johannem de Coucestre. de quindecim solidatis redditus cum pertinentiis in quiddam area quiddam. In preteritum conuencio sum fuit inter eos in eadem Curia. Date quod predictus Johannes de Coucestre recognouit predictum redditum cum pertinentiis simul cum homagio et toto seruitio Walteri filii Petri de quiddam et heredi suorum de toto tenentia quod de predicto Johanne de Coucestre prius tenuit in predicta villa esse suum ipsius Johannis de Balam. Habendum et tenendum eadem Johanni de Balam et heredibus suis de Capite Domini Regis illius per seruitia que ad illi redditum pertinent in perpetuum. Et preterea dicitur Johannes de Coucestre concessit per se et heredibus suis quod ipsi seruauit eadem Johanni de Balam et heredibus suis predictum redditum cum pertinentiis sicut predictum est contra omnes homines in perpetuum. Et per hanc recognitionem. Quamvis fuit et concordia. dicitur Johannes de Balam reddidit predicto Johanni de Coucestre decem Libras sterlingorum. Et hec concordia facta fuit presentibus predicto Waltero et cum concordante et fecit eadem Johanni de Balam fidelitatem in eadem Curia.

Handwritten text on a piece of aged, wavy-edged paper. The text is written in a cursive script, likely from the 17th or 18th century. The visible text at the top reads: "Ich schenck diesen Brief dem Herrn von Seltene". The rest of the page contains several lines of text that are extremely faint and illegible due to fading and the texture of the paper. The paper shows signs of wear, including creases and small dark spots.
