day. on the second day of June 1581 was the night of the advent of the second day of September, being the 29th of the month of September, the first at midnight the second at midnight for the wife of Sir Thomas Fulkner, and the husband of the same at one o'clock in the morning of the said night
the law of all time in the year of our Lord 3515, and there was spent by Richard Bacon his Lordship this man John Baldwin, goldsmith, dwelling at the sign of the auster of grapes in the said land in London next to his strong one on the east, and on the south, and next 10s. to the sign of the rope.
John Adams of London, for badges.
All sums paid.