From concerning the sum of some money to be paid and no forbearance is to be done to any person for payment, as is ordered for the sake of this concern, the money to be paid to the order of Mr. Smith, as per the note attached.

John Street, the son of John Street, has been paid some money in part for work done and other expenses, but they will send more as soon as possible.

John Street, the son of John Street, has been paid some money in part for work done and other expenses, but they will send more as soon as possible.