Form 4, and 40° Form anted, in bill of complaint 40° colored by no means. My esteem of the matter, intending, and for that I am engaged in that going on, and some of these sovereigns I will appoint. I could fame the premises of the matter, and to lend it, I would fame you hereafter, to the stately and great manner to you, and to command the want of all, and to begin upon to make some end between them of your haste, of not to begin into the matter, what you think of it, and in whom the matter is, And so far you speak, from my loyal more and utmost trust and confidence.

[Signature]
To my son, Sir
Baron of Edgbaston
I give these