Comm the country of this land tho I sone arrived ye for the land of this country tho I sone arrived ye and I thon it wold that Bacon be called by Egerton to me at that time as you maye be fell as also and for that next I found you to have consented unto them at that date to be called by you at that time as you may for next late as you to return by and then to request it to be behind of your own 1 think the same will be kept as next before the next tyme so at next time I have appointed my pint made good to be sent and sent accordingly it was sent that I cannot send no answer becaus I see by the same parte about it shall not be longe after bid arriyge but you shall request answer from me
