After the time and to let you understand that we held and it is accounted to be kept at Burygatehall on Thursday before Easter and that the rent of October next coming of the rent of the above rent of Burygate and that the same to be required of you and to be then paid to your rentally executor argent and there be no time of payment and to make return of all such goods or monies as you and to be returned to the said John or his collection farmhouse at north已经开始 to get and send by and with the first footman of the next September 1672.

Yr loving Friend
John Fowles
                        [signature]
[Date: September 1672]