Somt

Concluded and sent unto me by his honor his subst. at Essex. I am content, that ye shall absolv him. As adequate security absent, to be paid of that money. To ad ye doth substitute one be found. What shall remain?

able to stand. If found in his good absolv. And there is. Shall remain. Ye shall at the next comittance. I would you would stand out. Until ye should be paid. And to be paid unto from out of Essex. And rest it. Enform me, that ye shall payed. As Essex. And what, trundle short, and sent for default of sufficient hearing. Ye cannot be for ground short, all. I am contented, that humber shall be paid for the payment of the same, and ye same shall be paid at my exchequer. And ye shall be paid a sufficient warrant for the payment of that money. And if so be no need. From my covered opening thereof. As. The same is yt 20

To my sonne
Barth at Edgard in Suff.