If we had in Heaven all the parties we might have gained. When we see the material stuff and goods of the world, we fear that if we go on as we have gone, we will not find the same in the hereafter. But what if we go back to the way we lived before, and do the things we did? Perhaps then we will find peace. And what is it that makes us happy? Is it the peace we have found in the world, or the peace we have within ourselves? And what is it that we should do to find that peace? And where is that peace to be found? I think it is in ourselves. And what is it that makes us happy? Is it the peace we have found in the world, or the peace we have within ourselves? And what is it that we should do to find that peace? And where is that peace to be found? I think it is in ourselves.
Mit meiner Liebe und Freundschaft und einem herzlichen Gruß, und ich hoffe, dass Sie glücklich sind und dass die Zeit, mit der Sie zusammen, schöne Erinnerungen verbindet.

Sehr herzlichen Gruß an jemanden.
