15, Chury Street, S.W.

Jan. 9, 1885

My dear Sir,

Ten or twelve pages will do quite well, and you shall have the article before the 20th.

Faithfully yours,

Justin M.Carthy.

P.S. To W. Bunting, Esq.
15, Chury Street, S.W.

Jan 17, 1885

My dear Sir,

I enclose the article on Dublin Castle. I have made it as mild as I could, but the case is a strong one.

Faithfully Yours,
Justin M. McCarthy.

Percy W. Bunting Esq.
15, Chury Street S.W.
Jan. 8, 1885

My dear Sir,

Yes— I should be glad to do it, and I think it would be timely, only let me have a line, please, to say what length of article you would like and how soon— or rather how late— you want the copy.

Faithfully yours,
Justin M.Carthy

Percy W. Hunting Esq.
From a letter,

[Signature]

The text is handwritten and difficult to transcribe accurately. It appears to be a personal letter with some social references and mentions of events or people named in the text. The handwriting is cursive and slightly slanted. The content seems informal and personal, possibly discussing a recent event or appointment. The specific details are not clear due to the handwriting style.
Dearest Mrs. Hunting,

Mr. Strohmayr lives at his father's home, Drakova, Jihlava. Croatia, as a Český austrálie. His father's name is Dr. Český austrálie. From Jihlava, I'm yours,

John Smith
45 Fenningham Road
Holcham, N.E.
June 10th, 1870

Dear Sir,

The enclosed note from Sir Charles Garvan Duffy will supply the explanation & excuse for my addressing you.

I take the liberty of sending you, with this note, the paper to which Sir Garvan Duffy refers— and if you will kindly inform me at your convenience.
experience whether the paper is such as will suit your Review, I shall feel much obliged.

Yours truly,

M. Macdermot

Percy Wm. Bunting, Esq.
11 Old Square
Lincoln's Inn.
52, Ampthill Square
Regent Park N. 16
22 October, 1807.

My dear Sir,
I am venturing to send you a study upon Bourgeois's 2nd
Queen in the Eighteenth Century.
I hope upon modern thought, that represen
the summary of researches that have now occupied me many years. I should with this regard to serve as an introduction to the lying Bourgeois. I am preparing a
I should therefore be immensely pleased if it could appear in such a Magazine as the Contempory.
There are I think many indications.
That thoughtful people have made the discovery that the popular notion concerning year 7 turns on Manseau as a hypocrite & false sentimentalist, & also that they are prepared to receive or at any rate to consider some more satisfactory estimate of the character of a man whose influence was so immense. Amongst other reasons I may mention Meporgan & Montes which in the nineteenth century upon work & the influence that went to form his religious sentiment for nature.
I know you will be so very kind as to let me know your decision with regard to this article as soon as you conveniently can.

Believe me, dear sir,

faithfully yours,

Frederika MacDonald
Earlscliffe,
Ottawa.

28 June 1884

Dear Sir,

I regret very much that I cannot spare the time to prepare an article such as you desire. Perhaps some of my colleagues in the Government may be able to do so, and I shall make immediate enquiring.

Believe,

[Signature]
Believe me,
Your very truly,
John A. Macdonald

Percy M. Benting Esq.
11 Old Square
Lincoln's Inn
London, W.C.
England.