Dear Sir,

I beg to submit to you an article on "Australian Antiquities". I may mention that I have been for some years Curator of the Museum at the Adelaide University, and Muscumus of Victoria, Melbourne. I have been for many years a constant contributor to the best magazines.

The MS. appears somewhat lengthy, but the substance are "made in small type" so that, I think, occupying more than the usual space.

May I ask that it be returned to you earliest convenience.

Yours faithfully,

Dear Mr. Bunting,

Mr. Bryce informs me that you have kindly said that you would be glad of an article (about music) in our next issue, and I am sure that Mr. Bryce was right in recommending you for the work, for you are known in the music world and have many friends who would be pleased to have you write for our paper.

I hope you will find time to write the article and that it will be satisfactory to the Editor.

Yours sincerely,

The Irish Order for your February number—I should have great pleasure in sending it to you, but I have so many weekending engagements that I am afraid I shall not be able to complete it for your February number, but if you would accept it for next February number, I should have great pleasure in sending it to you.

Yours very truly,

Dear Mr. Bunting

I received your letter yesterday. It is most suggestive. I return to London on Monday and will take an opportunity of seeing you. The unfortunate is most important and yet—
Most difficult. I have thought much about it but have not yet been able to devise any actio-fading euphemism - to dis-favour the direct government, official to individuals and the indirect govern-

through the agency of committees - yet it is clear what greater benefits. I have been studying Canada

Dear Mr. Bunting,

I am much relieved by finding that John Morley as well as yourself is fully satisfied with the article.

Yours truly,

The addressee.
Make make the argument much more complete. I am sorry to have added the postscript so much to the first charge me with any extra expense. I am at a loss to say what I am at a loss to say. I have met the most of Mrs. McClellan.

Dear Mr. Bunting,

I am afraid that I cannot do the Caledonian Constitution. I thought that you were asked for Indian Alternatives above you, meant to give up all idea of the Caledonian Constitution.
as too much of a good thing — the consequence was that I ceased to work on the subject or to collect or read the necessary books.

Dear Hunting,

Many thanks for your letter. Since many years ago an article in Art Quarterly on the subject of Adolph Z. If I have time I will do an article longer by and bye. At present I am not out of the way. I remain yours,

Dear Mr. Bunting,

Very many thanks for your letter for £20. I am glad you are satisfied with the article. It was a work of labour and is, I believe, correct in all points but 1 your master will.

Dear Mr. Blunt,

Your suggestion as to an Artist on Horseback is most tempting and I should have liked much to have written...
It but I have conformed the report and have consulted time

Dear Bunting,

I cannot embark on any article at present as I am up to my eyes in light readings.

I ought to say that I have had Karl Heiberg's article — Sven (Chairman of the London (Gottemburg) Committee and she is one of the Secretaries) to write up in the budget.

My dear Sir,

In later years we are at a very long time,

And I should not be able to write any further of any kind at present. Do not think that I am stant interest.

In pursuance of action, I heartily wish you well.

My dear Sir,

I should have liked to write the notice to which you allude. But at present and until the end of the month, I am touring round Yorkshire day by day, and should find it quite impracticable until that is over. This would probably be too late for you.

Yours truly

Dear Mr. Bunster,

I send you on my article so that it may reach the hands of the printer on Monday morning. I have done my best to hit on the agony.

The reference to the results of the Emin Pasha Expedition should put Stanley back up to draw him.

Dear Mr. Brunty,

Just a line to say that I took down my article to the Controversy Office. It's written in your style and left it to be sent to you.

I hope you will find it to your liking.

Yours sincerely,

My dear Sir,

I am obliged by your cheque (£15. 15. 0) received on Sat. It is well that Huley has struck so loudly for he more the subject is examined the better it will be for religion.

It will afford me much pleasure to make W. acquaintance, I hope that circumstances will one of these days favor the desire.

Yours truly,
