Dear Mr. Bunting,

I am sending my MSS. - about 14 pages I think. It is a suggestive paper, but I am差点 tried with it. If you are disinclined to bill it without scruple, I have no hope... of persuading any one.

Here's more when you read this. I have the story about John Robinson. Now I see a patently instance of heresy.

It seems a patently instance of heresy, but I can imagine it disagreeing to me. But I can imagine it, quite ridiculous. I write these things if you like.

Jours very truly,

[Signature]

[Signature]

[Signature]
The Spectator Office
1, Wellington Street
Strand, London, WC
30th Dec 1887

Dear Mr. Bunting,

Bar clays. You may rely on me. M. S. S. next week. Three furloughs are written, but I can only do outside work on Monday & Tuesdays.

In writing of I have been exceedingly struck with the persistence of the Messrs.
was missionaries there. I have preached steady in India for nine hundred years. We desired having everything I would like oaks to the animals.

Yours very truly,

M. Townsend

By name, by the way is Meredith Townsend.
3rd July, 1889

94 Harley Street.

Dear Mr. Bunting,

Thanks for cheque. “The fate of Europe is at stake. If large a subject than the ultimate position of the Conch as mistress of Africa, truth in rival of America weighs the doubt be a subject matter of most interesting discussion. I will however, while I engage thy to thank our out for you a paper on "the future of the European proletariat" as to which I differ a good deal from the majority. Our views optimist in the matter, but people doon to the to make two erroneous beliefs.

derrately overrate the power of the revolutionary party to redistribute property, which is practically nil. The property will be redistributed, and they conceal all their thinking by muddling up the position of those who work in it.
Their hands until the position of the European Ascendancy who letter done or by misfortune cannot toll.

Yours very truly,

W. Townsend
Dear Mr. Bunting,

I am not well enough to undertake extra work, and my opinion about China is still undecided. I am clear that the peace between government and China will produce no good result; the Mongol being too strong to be stampeded with foreign influence, and pretende
I find that I have no certain thoughts.

Are we not making a blunder in objecting to the dissolution or disintegration of China? I could conceive of her vast population being happier, better organized, and more secure under say, twenty small monarchies.

The grand lesson of the condition of China is that the complete suppression of the civil spirit over the military spirit produces rottenness. The Chinese age ideal: Manchester, Proserpine, &c.

Yours very truly,

M. Townsend.
Dear Mr. Bunting,

I am too busy with other things to do the articles I have to, and I am afraid I shall not be able to finish them for a few weeks. There is another article too, I have not quite done with the cause of Indian annexation, I have been aware all my life of the Indian debate for the past twenty years, and I do not see how it has recently accelerated it. It is some current of motion, but what has set it flaring? I believe... to think it is Japanese, except that I am not certain. Without a balance of certainty, this is only to write.
I suggest the action of the struggle begins with the Medes, those who have the basis of Persia. The courage of Darius, but it is of no use to prophesy.

Jas. Irvin
Mr. Towneau
10 Avenue Road
Regent Park. N.W.

April 30th, 1883

Dear Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 27th, I beg to say that I shall have much pleasure in contributing a literary article on the subject you mention to the Contemporary Review.

I should be glad... to you if you would inform me how many copies you can allow, and whether you require the article for the June number.

May I assume that the rate of payment is the same as in the former

Race and Nineteenth Century. £1.0.0 or £1.1. a page?

Faithfully yours,

A. T. Smith.
10 Avenue Road.
Regents Park. L.W.

July 2, 83

Dear Sir,

Many thanks for the cheques. The article on Richardson I send next in the train of a few days.

Yours sincerely,

A. B. Smith
73 Pall Mall Sheet
Bath

Oct 25th 1883

My dear Sir,

Would it suit you to take an article from me for your December number, on Matthew Arnold?
he contemplate - i.e. a religion absolutely free from the supernatural element, that it might, could, would, should, or I make any say should obtain any real footing in any community of ordinary people.

[Handwritten text]
And 10 or 12 pages.
I should prefer to make it.

Faithfully yours
J.W. Thurl
Millbon Lodge
Upper Richmond Road
Putney.

May 16th 88

My dear Sir,

I beg to inform you that the works will be finished tomorrow morning. Please send a line to say where I shall send it to. I wish to give some hints of mine. Would you forward it to...

[Signature]
As to the printers? If so please let me know their address. I remembered some time after you told me I could have till the 21st that had dry on Wednesday.

Very truly yours,

A.D. Taitt
Jan 5. 91

The Mulberries
Upper Richmond Road
Putney

Dear Sir,

I think I could write a more or less amusing story in the indecisive sort of plotless, incident-less, new moving "interpretation" new novel "The Best-Headed American Wife." looking into one or two of the finest romantic stories of the world. Shakespeare and others—and transforming them to suit
the modern taste.

It should be short of course not more than 10 pp. and I could ask for more.

By say Kampferwiskta.

Today fortnight (first part)
Nov 17 the 8th. month.

Yours sincerely
A.D. Traill
Bancroft, Hitchin.

June 5th 1865

Dear Mr. Bunting,

My hands are so full and likely to be until I go again to Ireland as he seems to do in a few weeks

that I very reluctantly must say no to your hands expressed wish for an article on Irish law

E. C. {R_Not} (15 Eaton Place)

one or two days could give you a good article if he has the time?

Many thanks for your read congratulations... I can't be congratulated

in having in addition to the qualities we forgo must a true

deeper in my work -

the best wishes for the New Year for you.

Acting Belmonte

Janey saying

J. H. F."
Dec 11. 1883

Dear Sir,

I am honoured by your invitation and should be glad to accept it, but I have no time at all to spare.

Yours truly,

[Signature]

The Hon. Arthur Slesser, M.P., takes great interest in the fire-train. He can write.
Nov. 5, 1884

Dear Sir,

I am much obliged to you for your kind letter. I am sorry to say that I am very busy, and see no prospect of being able to write as the Government is in a Demand. -

W. Bunting

Forty nine Results
40, Ennismore Gardens.
S.W.

Aug. 1, 1885.

Dear Sir,

I am very sorry to say that, except for a very short holiday, I shall be engaged in public speaking till the general election. It would have been me great pleasure to accept the invitation which you have honoured me; but it will be all I can do to get through what lies before me.

Remain faithfully,

DW Bunting
Dear Sir,

I have just found your kind letter. Dam back from fifteen months’ electioneering, and I must take a holiday. Till after that holiday I shall neither write nor speak in public; but I would... have been very glad to have responded otherwise to your kind invitation.

Yours truly,

G O Bucy

D W Bunting Ed
April 15, 1887

Dear Mr. Bunting,

I am very sorry to reflect no speech exists. The meeting had not been fixed, and the speech is still in limbo. I am much honored by your invitation.

Yours truly,

[Signature]
Aug 20, 1887

Dear Mr. Bunting,

I am afraid that I cannot manage any writing just now. But I am going to write nowhere else.

Yours very truly,

[Signature]
नारंगीपुर कोशिका कोट्टिपूर पुणे