

New York July 28. 1798

Sir

I received upon my arrival here your favours of the 25th with the Commissions, all of which I have signed and My Son will transmit them to you.
The weather was yesterday so hot, that I came very nigh destroying my Herbs, and is not moderated this morning.

I am, Sir your most obedient
and humble servant

John Adams

New York July 20 1798

I received your very kind letter of the 22nd with the Compendium, all of which I have taken and the same will be sent to you The matter was quickly to let the same with respect to the same, and is not I am, Sir, your most obedient
and humble servant
