

My Dear Sir

The letter you gave a few days since for Capt. Mowder by some means or other dropped out of my Pocket. The bearer Mr. Lewis is the gentleman by whom I was to have sent it - you can know this accident by writing by Mr. Lewis now

I am Sir your Humble Serv^t

J. M. Armstrong

11 August 1788

John Keeleron Esq^r

Book Account of the Stationery Commission to examine to members. App^d Johnson in 1883

| | | | | | |
|----|-----------------|-----|----|------------|------|
| 5. | 3.7.6 | 100 | 3. | 33.4 | 100 |
| | 33.15.0. | | | 7.6 | |
| | 337 | 10 | | 20 | 10 |
| | 67 | 210 | | 20 | 8.4 |
| | | 10- | | 204 | .3 3 |

App^d Bailey, business -

Letter from Capt John
Dunbar - Rec^d 5th 11th 1888
John Nicolson Esq