

Q 31
B 4

Burlington, N.J.

June 10th 1858

Dear Harry

Frubner, a London book-seller wants a dozen copies of the "Terrestrial Mollusks" for operations in Europe. Will you have the goodness to make up a package of colored, 2^{col.} colored, and 1 double, all 8^{pages}, and address them to Frubner & Co. London. Have the package sent by Express, freight paid, to Wiley and Halsted, New York.

Cannot you make us a visit
this summer, especially in pear time?

Marie sends love -
Yours

W. G. Binney

Q 43
84

Burlington, N.J.
June 10. 1878

Dear Henry

Johnson, a London book-seller wants a dozen copies of the "Bibliotheca Mystica" for operators in Europe. Will you have the goodness to make up a package of colored; ^{two} letters, and 1 double air box, and address them to Johnson & Co. London. Have the packages sent by express, freight paid, to Wiley and Hobbs, New York.

Cannot you make us a visit
this summer, especially in New Jersey?
None sends love -
Yours

W. P. Burney