

THE CURRENT LITERATURE PUBLISHING CO.
BRYANT BUILDING, 55 Liberty Street,
NEW YORK.

Aug^t 21. '97.

My dear Mr. Cawein:

I cannot overstate my thanks to you for your flattering letter and for your books. I have been out of breath with the haste of my imperative tasks for a long time, but just now as I am about to take a train for a long vacation, I seize the moment to say that your books go with me and at its end we shall be thoroughly acquainted.

Ever
Yours truly
J. W. Cable

PS 1247

THE CURRENT LITERATURE PUBLISHING CO.
BRYANT BUILDING 22 Liberty Street
NEW YORK

July 21, '07

My dear Mr. Cameron:

I cannot overstate my thanks to you for your flattering letter and for your books. I have been out of touch with the late of my imitative taste for a long time, but just now as I am about to take a train for a long vacation, I seize the opportunity to say that your books go with me and at its end we shall be thoroughly repaid.

Yours truly
W. M. Wells