My dear Sir,

I received your note on Sunday, and supposed you would call on Monday.
I had the occasion to see, that you delayed calling, expecting me to say I would be at home.
I moved to Millers
on Monday morning,
and would have seen
you there, as I will at any time and place at all

When you please to call.

Ever your sincere
Friend
T. W. C. S.
