Dear Mr. Pavey, I have received your letter of the 5th

We had not forgotten you but since writing to you no photographs have been taken of either of us. Weather and work together have prevented it, but so soon as we have them we will ^{will} put in the autographs and send them along.

The manner in which you read the letter we sent you from Arizona on Thanksgiving Day gives us both pleasure.
Yours truly,
H. Rowland
