Respectfully returned, with the information that the man alluded to within was not Mosely, Mr Galt states that a rough dressed stout man middle aged & was in his store at the time alluded to & said something about Moselys independent Carriage, when he threatened him with arrest, this man Mr Galt says has been in the habit of visiting his store for years, & is supposed to be a brother of E. G. Edgison of No 290 8th St West, Moselys description is as follows viz from 22 to 24 years of age, young looking rather gawky in appearance carries his head on one side, chawling in his speech pro feet 7 or 8 in high light hair & blue eyes very thin with sharp features.
