Lieut. W. P. Bacon,
Adjutant. 5th N.Y. Cavalry.

Dear Sir,

It gives me great pleasure to bear testimony to the industry, activity, energy, and devotion to the service exhibited by yourself during the time that the 5th N.Y. Cavalry, was under my command, — from the first of January, to the last of July, 1862.

If this letter can be of any service to you, please make such use of it as you choose. With the kindest wishes for your future success, I remain,

Very truly,

Garrison.

J. P. March
Brig. Genl.

Being still confined to my bed, by my wound, I am compelled to employ an amanuensis in all my correspondence.
