My dear Major -

I received your letter, and I sympathize with you warmly in your disappointment. I confess I do not understand why it should be so, for your claim was certainly an exceedingly strong one, & I thought you certainly must succeed.

I do not know what can be done further now. If you can suggest anything, let me hear from you.
I am intensely busy, but I will "make time" to help you if I can.

Sincerely yours
Joseph Hawley
