Dear Sir,

I have just received your note of the Jan<sup>y</sup> 31st enclosed with an acc<sup>t</sup> for books amounting to $128.18.

About the end of the fall, when the books were received, being on the point of leaving Baltimore, I requested Mr J. L. McLane to pay for them. When "the statement of acc<sup>t</sup> to which you refer was presented, I supposed that the other had been settled by Mr McLane. He afterwards informed me that it had not been - but promised to attend to it.

If you will now send the account to him he will pay it immediately - having funds in his hands for the purpose.

Very respectfully,
J. E. Johnston
