

New York 29th Aug^r 1785.

Sir,

Mr. Osgood goes from this city tomorrow for Boston, and will return after a few weeks — I profit from this opportunity of requesting you to oblige me in paying to Mr. Osgood the balance of a former warrant in my favor being 100 Dollars — together with the amount of a late warrant for 200 Dollars.

I am induced to think that you will not decline this request if you have it within your power to comply; it is almost improper to mention to you, that in the public employ, the support should be at the public expense, and not upon the private funds of the Inwant of the State —

With great respect your obedient

Inwant

Richard King
