

Hotel Burgundy. Rue Duphot. Paris
April 26.

My dear Mrs. Burdett. Here I am, & here I shall be through May when I go on to Geneva with some friends for a while. I am very sorry that I have not just now private view. Thank her for me for remembering me. My love to you now & always. I hope that I shall see you in the autumn, when we all return & take up house-keeping again. Your affectionate friend My best love to the dear Scotts. E. Lynn Linton
