

GLENHAVEN,
ALBANY STREET, GLOUCESTER GATE, REGENT'S PARK.

May 6, 1902

Thursday.

Dear Miss Clack:

It is so

sorry about your book
but it got lost when we left the Carlton for our home. I suppose in the packing, and has only
just today been found.
so I'll send it to the Rev. Dampier to sign

GLENHAVEN,
ALBANY STREET, GLOUCESTER GATE,
REGENCY PARK.

And if you are near the theatre tomorrow night
you can get it from him.
I doubt if they've ever sent your messages to Mrs May, they are very stupid, and I trust you will pardon the delay.
My love is very sorry,
trusting you get it safely.
Yrs
Jane May.
