

E 467.1
.M4

La Pierre House,
3 o'clock p.m.

My dear Mr. Kenzie, I have just come in from Washington, and if you ~~say~~ you'll run up, on receipt of this hurried ~~by~~ but heartly invitation, and dine with me (at all-
-events take a glass
of ~~rosine~~ wine with me, in case you've dined) I shall be delighted to wait until the 11 o'clock
train - ever yours
J. F. Meagher

Faint handwritten text at the top right corner.

Main body of handwritten text, appearing as bleed-through from the reverse side of the page. The text is mirrored and difficult to decipher.

