

Monday

My dear Sir
I have a notion that an old Sir of mine in the form of a Tragedy (not worth to cry at) which I have just been reading, might not be altogether without its use in the original home of "Bombastes". When can you give me half an hour to send it? The sooner it may suit your convenience the better, as I am on the point of leaving town.

Yours, dear Sir, faithfully
Yours,

Charles Clark
