My dear Sir:

I am extremely obliged to you for the timely & handsome article you were kind enough to publish in June in my defence, & trust you may never have cause to regret your partiality.

I am exceedingly occupied, so much so, as not to be able to answer shall be compelled to leave them of the city - after working all night in making arrangements for the public service.

Trusting that, at some future time, I may have the pleasure of your personal acquaintance,

I remain, very truly yours

Winfield Scott.

Sunday, Nov. 29.
