

E 207
.C2
1798

Republica

vs.
John Cadwalader Esquire

This Indictment came on to Trial before us at Huntington May Assizes 1798, and after a full Hearing of all the Witnesses the Charge made against the Defendants appeared to be wholly groundless, & he was acquitted thereof by the Jury who did not leave the Box, under our Charge & to our entire Satisfaction

Edw. Shippen

J. Yates

May 12. 1798.

