

E 415. 9. 89 [1865]

A cargo lawyer of
N. Y. whom I met
at Olive Court exp expressed surprise when I told him that Everett had been pressed for Chief Justice. He inquired -
"Who pressed him?" - I said he was pressed from hence. "Ah! I was not aware of it."

Ever yours,

Charles Sumner

Dear Chandler,

You will note the
correspondence about the Florida. It ends by mentioning the detour
of the ship, - leaving to Brazil to make further claim if it sees fit. But Gray to you no further claim will be allowed.

The settlement is, therefore, precisely according to what was foretold in the article of American. The Portuguese Charge here seems content; but he is not in a credit & shows the fine views of his Govt.

I note the bad temper of Primates, who evidently is glad to strike at me, & his refusal to send to Poland with, while a pet, the Great Britain has changed since the Crimean War. No such thing. There are instances as late as 1860 - & I think later also, where her cruisers have seized a ship in neutral waters. Oh! for a little less of personal spite & more knowledge!
