My Dear Sir,

I venture to send you a copy of my Speech on the Exchequer Resolution.
There is nothing in it worth your perusal, & there are some things in it which I cannot hope will be satisfactory to you. - But as some of my expressions have been misrepresented in the Papers, I prefer you should see what I really said. Very respy Your friend & opp.
Rob. C. Winthrop.
