CHICAGO TAKES GOOD CARE OF ITS MILLIONS OF WORLD'S FAIR VISITORS

All Welcome Everyone is welcome and will be well taken care of within the city of Chicago, whether arriving by railroad, water, air or highway.

Drive to Gates Automobiles may be driven directly to Exposition gates and every facility is provided for out-of-town visitors.

Traffic, Parking The traffic is well regulated and there are ample parking spaces at low rates near the Fair grounds.

Auto License Furthermore, there is no need to buy an Illinois auto license for a prolonged stay, as the Illinois law is a reciprocal one.

State Law This law allows a visitor's automobile to remain in the state as long as an Illinois automobile could remain in the home state without a license.

Hotels, Rates 400,000 visitors can be accommodated daily in hotels within 45 minutes' ride of the Fair grounds. The hotels have agreed not to raise rates.

Homes, Rooms For those who prefer not to stay at hotels, the Chicago Association of Commerce will locate homes or rooms in any part of the city.

Tourist Camps Approved and inspected tourist camps outside the city will care for all tourists who prefer them.

Transit to Fair Transportation facilities within the city provide for over 150,000 persons per hour. Railroad, elevated, street car, bus, taxi and motor boat service direct to gates at low fares.

Guide Book Send for an Official Guide Book of the Fair at 30c postpaid for further detailed information.
