

WHERE TO DINE

IN CHICAGO

IN THE
UNION STATION

JUST OUTSIDE THE WORLD'S FAIR

AT THE WORLD'S FAIR

WORLD'S FAIR

DELIGHTFULLY COOL RESTAURANTS

★
Fred Harvey food is served in four spacious and attractive restaurants in Chicago's newest terminal. Air conditioning insures cool comfort even on the warmest summer days. The CAFETERIA, LUNCH ROOM and DINING ROOM offer a complete range of service and prices.

SMART SHOPS

Unusual and interesting gifts from all parts of the world, smart wearing apparel and accessories, clever toys, the latest books, delicious candies and pastries . . . invite your selection at the Fred Harvey Shops in the Union Station. The Barber Shop, Beauty Shop and Drug Store afford every convenience for travelers.

IN THE STRAUS BUILDING

★
On the corner of Michigan Avenue and Jackson Boulevard, almost at the entrance to "A Century of Progress," is Fred Harvey's newest restaurant. One of Chicago's smartest dining places, it offers the choice of four comfortable and attractive dining rooms, serving the best of food at popular prices. Dinner-dancing nightly in the beautiful Embassy Room. (For an added attraction, see the following page.)

TOY TOWN TAVERN

★
Located on "The Enchanted Island," Toy Town Tavern amazes children and amuses grown folks. The animated decorations created by Tony Sarg bring fairyland to life. Special dishes are prepared for children under the direction of a Fred Harvey dietitian.

Fred Harvey

★
RESTAURANTS • FROM CLEVELAND TO CALIFORNIA

IN THE
UNION STATION

JUST OUTSIDE THE WORLD'S FAIR

AT THE WORLD'S FAIR

HARVEY'S TOWER TAVERN

for a Bird's-Eye View of the

WORLD'S FAIR

Far above the city—thirty-one stories high in the Straus Building—is Fred Harvey's Tower Tavern. Here, while enjoying the magnificent panorama of A Century of Progress and Chicago's lake front, you may obtain delightful refreshments—served either at your table or at the bar

Fred Harvey