DUNDEE TOWELS

THE OLD SOUTH was noted for its hospitality. The dining room was the chief centre. The good hostess spared no pains in setting the very best table that could be provided from her store room. In those days it was chiefly from the dining room that good cheer radiated.

But a new generation has arisen; luxuries unknown in that day have now become necessities, and the host or hostess who would fully express his or her hospitality must, while in no way neglect the table, provide the most attractive bathroom possible. And what is so fine? What is so luxurious? What is so gratifying, as a bathroom provided with a plenty of snowy white, absorbent Turkish Towels?

DUNDEE Turkish Towels and Huck Towels are made in over 300
