MODERN WOODMEN OF AMERICA
At A CENTURY OF PROGRESS, Chicago, Ill.
MAY 26 TO NOVEMBER 1, 1934
Social Science Hall (Second Floor), North End of Electrical Building on Northerly Island

CROSS-WORD PUZZLE CONTEST

CASH PRIZES

INFORMATION AND RULES

1. $750 in cash is to be given to those who solve the puzzle and write the best statement of not exceeding 100 words about Modern Woodmen of America. These prizes, seventy-five in all, are as follows:

   First prize of $250; 2 prizes of $100 each; 2 prizes of $50 each; 10 prizes of $10 each; 10 prizes of $5 each; 50 prizes of $1 each.

2. The puzzle, which has purposely been made easy of solution, may be filled out by men, women, or children, whether members of the Society or not, and sent in to the Head Office at Rock Island without the statement concerning the Society. No cash prizes will be given for the puzzle alone, but an interesting illustrated booklet will be sent to all who solve the puzzle, provided the name and other information called for at the bottom of fourth page have been supplied.

3. The deleted words in the narrative must be filled in and the same words filled in proper spaces in the design.

4. The statement about Modern Woodmen of America should not contain verbatim excerpts of phrases and sentences. Original language should be used.

5. Every shaded space in the design containing the words "Modern Woodmen of America" and the beetle, axe, and wedge is to be considered a break the same as the black spaces of the design.

6. An outstanding national committee of judges will be appointed. Their decision will be final. They will judge every effort by its correctness, neatness, originality, and worth. The contest closes November 10, 1934, for receipt of puzzle solutions, which must be received at the Head Office, Rock Island, Illinois, on or before that date.

7. Everybody, whether a member or not, may compete for the cash prizes, except those who are officially connected with the Society.

8. Every contestant for the cash prizes must accompany his statement with a completed solution of the puzzle and the narrative.

* * *

Be Sure to Sign Your Name and Fill Out Blanks on Last Page
THE NARRATIVE

Modern Woodmen of America is a legal reserve fraternal life insurance Society. It is more than 51 years of . . . . By its accomplishments, it has earned the . . . . to . . . the leading fraternal beneficiary Society . . . America. Its members hate . . . and love peace. They believe in the Bible injunction, “Love . . . Neighbor as thyself.” They wish no man to be a . . . They believe in the code of human service and uphold the . . .

The Society sells whole family protection for . . . women, and children and even the youngest . . . Its policies are . . . and modern. There is a . . . to . . . nearly every . . . You pay no membership . . . The . . . or cost is adequate. The fraternal features are unsurpassed . . . Camps have a . . . team, which you can recognize by the axes when you . . . them. The Society has local Camps or lodges . . . almost every city and town. There is one . . . you. It has the finest tuberculosis Sanatorium in this country, which is free . . . members.

By writing . . . the Society’s Head Office . . . Rock Island, Illinois, you may learn how, at the . . . of 60, you may receive $10,000 in . . . or a living income for life. Do not . . . by putting this off until it is . . . late. M. W. A. is a . . . of distinction and protection. A single monthly payment . . . one of our policies creates an estate . . . your family. It is . . . easy and inexpensive, . . . urge you to . . . and . . . what others have done.

All must some day . . . to the inevitable. None . . . escape the course of time and . . . When the . . . of sympathy down the cheek of your friend, because death has come . . you, . . will not be so much inclined to . . . or to . . . Nor will he be so likely to . . . on account of his grief . . . to rend his . . . in despair if . . knows your family is protected.

The Society owes . . . money, owns no stocks and . . utility, railroad, or industrial bonds. The proceeds of . . . policies are not attachable for debts.

Many of the best people in your own town . . . already Neighbors. When you go home, look up our Camp Secretary or District Manager. You will be . . happy you . . this advice . . . A Century . . Progress, you will thank us . . . you will, without delay or . . . , buy one of our modern guaranteed policies as a . . . to your family, they will rejoice because they will know you have . . last determined to protect them.

P. S. One of our members consented to . . . this narrative.
NARRATIVE CROSS-WORD PUZZLE

NOTE—Numbered words in the narrative on opposite page correspond to the same numbered spaces in the puzzle.
Your Statement About

MODERN WOODMEN OF AMERICA

NOTE AND INSTRUCTIONS: Write here (with pen and ink or typewriter) not to exceed one hundred (100) words about Modern Woodmen of America. Original language must be used—do not copy or use whole phrases or sentences in the narrative or in any Modern Woodmen of America literature. To compete for the cash prizes this statement must be submitted, the narrative filled out, and the cross-word puzzle completed. Name, address, and other information must be filled in at the bottom of this page. Contest closes November 10, 1934, for receipt of puzzle solutions at the Head Office in Rock Island, Illinois.

MY STATEMENT ABOUT MODERN WOODMEN OF AMERICA

...................................................................................................................
...................................................................................................................
...................................................................................................................
...................................................................................................................
...................................................................................................................
...................................................................................................................
...................................................................................................................
...................................................................................................................
...................................................................................................................

VERY IMPORTANT—Fill Out These Blanks Completely Whether You Submit the Above Statement or Not

My name is.................................................(Your Signature).................................................(Print Name Here Plainly)
P. O. address..............................................State
...................................................................................................................
Street or Box No.
...................................................................................................................
My age is....................................................years.  Sex....................................................

Occupation or business

If you are a member of Modern Woodmen of America give Camp No. and location here:
...................................................................................................................

MAIL THIS COMPLETE FOLDER TO

HEAD OFFICE, MODERN WOODMEN OF AMERICA
Contest Department, Rock Island, Illinois, U. S. A.