Mrs. Luke told me to come out into the hallway and told me she would charge me 200 to go to bed.

I asked her "how about my friend?" And she said she knows a nice girl that she can call up. She told me to give her a nickel for the phone. Which I did. She called up Seelen 6458. And said "Ida, come one right away. I have 2 men for you." About 10 minutes later, a girl came in and told us her name was Ida.

Ida solicited me to prostitution, by asking me to go to bed with her for the sum of $5.00 and $1.00 for the room.

Mrs. Luke went up stairs with some towels and came down shortly and told me the room was ready. After giving a reasonable excuse for not going to bed, she told idea to wait as a man called up and would be right one.

Mrs. Luke tells me she has a Judge Williams auto in the garage that she has been keeping company with him for about 2 or 3 years and that she took him up with a pint. He was too old for her and that he was a crat.

She told us she was arrested by Detective Perry at the Harrison Ave. Station about 2 weeks ago and her case dismissed.

I saw a small boy about 9 years come down stairs, Mrs. Luke told me that was one of her roomers boy; that her boy was down stairs.

She also told me that Grace (a former slave) robbed a many 2¢ and that she does not allow her to come there any more.

Mrs. Luke admitted that the owner of 1519 was like a mother to her, but that the owner of 1521 was no good, she is thinking of giving up 1521 and opening a hotel this spring at 1519. She also told me that...

Soldiers and Sailors in Uniform

at

3 W. Harrison St.

Murphy Bros. Saloon

At about 4 P.M. I saw 2 Sailors in uniform enter the above place. I followed them in.

They stood at the North end of the bar and said something to the Tall, Heavy, dark-haired Bartender (weighing about 200 lbs.)

The Bartender then told 2 civilians that were standing at the bar to stand near the sailors, which was done.

One of these Sailors gave a dollar bill to one of these civilians.

The Bartender served 2 glasses of ginger ale to the sailors, gave 2 empty glasses to one of the civilians, who filled them with whiskey from a decanter.

The sailors drank their ginger ale.

The civilian handed one of the filled whiskey glasses, behind him to one of the sailors, who poured its contents into his own empty glass and then drank it.

(End)
This act was repeated so that the 2nd sailor could get a drink of whiskey.

The civilian gave a balloon bill the bartender $1.00 (a balloon bill); bartender rang up 45¢, gave the change to the civilian, who in turn handed it to the sailors.

The sailors left the place, returned again in about 5 minutes and received from this same civilian a bottle filled with liquid that was evidently whisky.

Special report of Investigator E. for Saturday Nov. 21-1917-on Soldiers and Sailors in Uniform.

In company with Mr. U. at about 11:05 P.M. We observed a lame young man, 2 sailors in uniform into the alley north of Harrison St., between State St. and Plymouth St. This same man gave one of the sailors a bottle, that looked like whiskey.

This same lame man I have observed on Nov. 17th also lead sailors into this same alley and hand them bottles with liquid in them. I followed the same man and the 2 sailors to State and Van Buren St. and over heard the same man tell the sailors that: he was around these corners all the time and could get them anything to drink at any time; that he had several civilian suits of clothes at his home that he would rent out to them.

In company with Inv. J., we visited this place at about 9:00 P.M. and we saw 3 men at the first end of the bar, shaking dice out of a black box. There was paper money on the bar. After each shake, money was laid down and one of the 3 men would pick up some of the money.

In a booth on the north side of the saloon, 4 men were shaking dice. Considerable paper and silver money was on the table in front of them and after each shake, money would be exchanged between them.

The bartender, a tall, dark-haired man of about 40 years age and weighing about 200 lbs., was serving drinks to the 3 men at the bar, that were shaking dice.

At about 4 P.M. I visited this place alone and 3 men were trying to gain admittance. They were admitted, in a minute or two, one of these men came out of this place.

I then tried to gain admittance, a woman at the door refused to allow me to enter.

In about 10 minutes the other two men came out of this place and told me that they only paid 100 a piece and "get theirs."

Later in the afternoon I met a young man that had a scar on his face. He told me that he goes to this same place about once or twice a week; that last Thursday (1/21/17) he was there and had intercourse with a girl. This man wrote his name and address on attached card:

He was admitted by a girl who told me her name was Josephine, to the front room facing street on 1st floor.

Josephine left the room, telling me she would call another girl. I heard her call "Grandma." She then returned to the room telling us Grandma, the landlady, went for a girl next door.

In a few moments a girl entered, who was introduced to me as Olive.

Josephine told Olive to take me to an other room which she did.

I met an old lady about 60 yrs. of age. She told me her name was Olive.
was "Grandma" and that she was the owner of this flat.

Grandma told Oliva to take me to a bedroom just off of the sitting room, which she did.

After entering the bedroom Oliva accused me of bringing a detective, after assuring her that I was not, she searched me for a gun and star.

She told me that Grandma told her to be careful of both Vi and me as we were strangers.

Oliva then asked me to go to bed, but not naming a price. I then asked Josephine what is Oliva's price. Josephine told me that it was $300, and $100 for the room for Grandma.

We were admitted to the front-room 1st floor last by a tall, thin woman who appeared to be about 26 yrs. ago. This woman's right and left hands were missing 1st and 2nd joint of all fingers.

Gave me her name as Altina.

A woman who told me she was the Keeper

Altina told me she was here for purposes of prostitution and told V. her price.

Two men in front of the building caused Altina to be nervous, she told us to hide in the inner bedroom, which we did not.

In Company with Mr. V. we visited the above place at the above time.

After repeated ringing of the door bell, a woman whom I had seen on several visits and who had previously solicited me to prostitution, came to the door and wanted to know what I wanted. I asked her if she had any girls in the place. She then opened the door and said to me, "You have been 3 times and never stayed with a girl." I told her she never sent me before.

She then told me she was "unwell" to stay but to come around in a few days and she would be taken care of.

In a few moments I saw the man in conversation with the clerk in a room South East of the office. The clerk gave the man a paper billback.
This man paid the clerk 8/50 before he was roomed.

Time 10:30 A.M. to 2:30

I visited this place with Mr. R and found it just to be operating as a disorderly place. As we entered this place a colored man at the door said "seen me" and I was seated at a table by a colored waiter who called himself Captain George. He served us with two glasses of grape juice. The next drink we purchased was two bottles of Mack Morris which was served as by the same waiter. Captain George informed us that he could get us a couple of girls but we protested and paid him not to do so at this time.

I also observed two uniformed officers in this place during my presence. A man who sat at our table was served two "lime & mayo" high balls by Captain George.

Here we found a girl known as "Ada.

Soon Ada solicited us again to buy drinks and May served us with 2 bottles.
Soon after "Marie" (another inmate whom I was thick with Ada on our last visit) came in I heard Ada solicit "No. X" to prostitution for the sum of $3.00 plus $1.00 for a room. I paid 75¢ for the last round of drinks and gave May 25¢ for a tip.

Ada also solicited me to prostitution but only mentioned the price to "No. X."

On my way out I saw a soldier in uniform in a rear bedroom talking with May.

came to be operating as a house direction. We entered through the entrance of 1803 Van Buren and on the 4th floor of 1803 Van Buren we met an old man about 60 years old, 5 ft 4, 130 lbs., and dark complexion who said he was the father of Mrs. Stowe. This man came from the 1807 office, which is on the 1807 side of the building and while we stood in front of the office door which is (still on the 1807 side) I told him that Inv. U and myself (over) had picked up two street-walkers on the street and asked him if we could bring them up. He replied "Yes."
I then told him that I had a front room on the other side of the house (1503) before and that I did not want that room again. The old man, Two Y and myself walked over to that side and I showed him the room; I had and he pointed to another room (room 26) also on this side but did not say that he would give me room 26.
We then then walked back to the 1807 side of the hotel and while standing immediately in front of the office door (on this side) I asked the old gent what he would charge us for a room and he replied, "100 each.
We left by the 1807 side.

Canary Cottage

Thursday Jan. 24th. 1918

I entered the place in company with Inv. X at about 9 P.M. and we were seated to a table in the extreme south room by a man acting as manager whom we later heard called "Mr. Ed." We were solicited to buy drinks by a colored waiter #4 and were served with one bottle of Edelweiss Beer for which I paid 10¢ plus a 10¢ tip to the waiter in addition to a so-called 10¢ government tax on the first round of drinks, which the waiter insisted that every one must pay on the first purchase of liquor.

At a table about 10 feet east of us sat a man whom we later heard called "Weiss". I asked waiter #4 whose Charlie Seppendorf was and he said Charlie was (over) managing the "New Fountain Inn" at 63rd St and 106th St. I also asked him who was the present manager and he replied "Mr. Ed." I then asked him who the man was who was sitting at the table 10 feet from ours and he replied the boss. I then asked who was the boss and he said "that is Louie Weiss and pointed to the man sitting about 10 feet from our table.

From the description given me by Mr. R., this man was Louie Weiss.

I saw a woman about 28 years old, 5 ft. 6 inches tall, 130 lbs., with attractive blue eyes, her eye-brows penciled black, the lines extending back farther than the natural eye-brow, wearing a gray dress and big-banded hat with a jewish appearance. She is of attractive appearance, with a pretty white skin of a blonde and brunette. She sat with Louie Weiss at a table for a short time and walked about the place up to the time we left.

I heard Mr. Edd address this woman as "Mrs. Weiss." I also asked worker #4 who that chicken was and he replied "that is the boss's wife and when I asked who that was he said it was Louie Weiss's wife.

After being served with one more bottle of Edelweiss Beer for which I paid $0.75 plus a 10¢ tip. I called Louie Weiss to our table on a pretext of complaining on paying a 10¢ war tax. Louie told me that all the cafes are charging the same forwar tax because they have to pay a war tax. He said he paid his war tax Wednesday (Jan. 23rd 1918), evidently speaking as to the he owned this place. I tried several ways to get him to say who he was but he wouldn't. During this conversation with him I inquired to the new orchestra, new manager, etc., and he replied —
Yes, I made several changes, again referring to possession.

Louis Weiss then stepped back from our table about 5 feet and I started to light my pipe. I noticed waiter #4 immediately spoke to Louis about my pipe and the waiter then came to me and told me that I was not allowed to smoke my pipe in here. I asked who said so, and the pointed to Louis again and said the boss said so. I then asked who he was and the waiter replied "Louis Weiss." I then asked the waiter if he owned the place to which the waiter replied "Yes, that's Louis Weiss." Also, while back in the bar/area the colored attendant said that, "Louis Weiss runs and owns this place and he pointed Louis Weiss out to me who was the same man referred to above. I was also told by the colored attendant and waiter #4 that the manager’s name was "Mr. Edd," referring to a different man than Mr. Weiss. We left at about 10:20 p.m.

A. W. W.
The man in question (Ernie Weiss) is as follows:

- About 30 or 35 years old.
- 5 ft 8 inches tall.
- 160 Lbs.
- Blue eyes.
- Slight double chin.
- Slightly puff, eyes.
- Slightly bold, the bold part covering the top of his head, running from his forhead back past the crown of the head.
- Black hair.
- Speaks with an accent of a German Jew.
- Always with an indignant expression in his face.
- He wore a black green suit and black shoes on this occasion.

I entered this place at about 9:25 p.m. in company with a Miss Smith, a Miss McMinnara and Mr. V. and we were ushered to a table in the east end of the south section by a woman known as Mr. Edd, but whose correct name she later said was "Harry DeWitt." Harry is acting manager.

Just as we were seating ourselves at the table we saw two uniformed police officers leave the service bar.

Harry DeWitt said he was the manager.

Just as we were seating ourselves at the table we saw two uniformed police officers leave the service bar and proceed out to the street.

Special Report of Inv. V - on 3039 W. Madison St. - 2nd floor.

Friday Jan. 25th 1918

In company with U.S. Deputy Marshall
Morris Klein, U.S. Marshal Cruz, Deputy Collector Hawkins, Deputy Collector Mulhern and police officer Hudson, I left the Federal Building and arrived at 3039
W. Madison St. 2nd floor at about 8 P.M.

After entering we found only 2 women who were about 14 years of age, while the other woman was about 35 years old. After searching the premises thoroughly we found no liquor except 2 partially filled glasses of beer on the pantry shelf and 6 empty whiskey bottles in a cupboard drawer. These, we did not confiscate.

The elder woman of the two said that May Hunt had gone to a show and would be back probably in an hour, however the younger woman said that
May Hunt had gone to the County Hospital
(over)
to visit her sick mother (Mrs. Foster). Deputy Collectors Hawkins and Multienlift for their homes and Morris Klein accompanied me to the County Hospital in search of May Hunt while officer Howes and U.S. Marshall Arias remained in the flat.
At the hospital, the doorman informed me that there had been no visitors here for this particular patient.
We then returned to 3039 W. Madison St.
and told the two women it was Mother Foster we wanted instead of May Hunt and with Howes, Klein, and Arias, we covered the house in wait for May Hunt up to 9:15
P.M. but did not find her.
We then planned a trap for May Hunt for the following day and returned to the Federal Bldg.

Invo. R, U, X, Marshall Avis and Marshall Joe Kubik planned as follows:

Invo. U and X to early 3039 W. Madison St.

Invo. R and Marshall Avis to search the home of Mary Hunt at 1846 Fulton St. while I was to go to the County Hospital with Joe Kubik, have Mary Hunt called to the hospital to see her mother on a picture of her mother being seriously ill.

With Joe Kubik I arrived at the hospital at about 3:00 p.m. and after we had arranged to have the Marshall office notified when Mother Foster was able to leave through the courtesy of Mr. Healy, assistant superintendent of the institution.

We then had the head nurse forward #30 (ward in which Mrs. Foster is) call 3039 W. Madison St. and deliver the message as above. The nurse then reported to us that a man's voice answered the telephone who said Mary Hunt was not in but he would find her and have her come right over to the hospital. We waited until about 6 P.M. when we learned that Inv. 12 and Marshall Davis, Inv. U+X had entered the flat at 3039 W. Madison St. and it was the conclusion of Marshall Kubek that May Aunt would not fall in the trap we had planned for her because of that. We left for the flat and arrived there at about 7:15 P.M., when we joined the rest of the boys and left for our homes.
(Canary Cottage - Inn. V.)

We were solicited to buy all drinks by colored waiter #8 except the first 3 beers, which was served by colored waiter #3, and the round of drinks Inn. U paid for which were served at the table of our party and the two bottles were carried out.

All drinks were served and paid for in return as shown above. Of the four glasses of beer I was served, I consumed and transferred to another a portion of each bottle until my bottle was full, the balance I found on the floor.

Inn. U confiscates a portion of the 3 hi-balls served him and transfers same to a bottle in his left vest top pocket.

A moment before being served our first drinks Inn. U called a man over to our table who was known to me as Mr. Edd, but later said his correct name was Harry De Witt. We heard Harry call (OVER) a man known as Louie Weiss, Louie.

After some conversation with Harry, he said that he was the manager and would see that we were treated right.

We were solicited to buy drinks by waiter #3 and were served with 2 glasses of beer which we saw him pour from 2 black brown bottles without labels on them. He said that this was Bevo but we would like it alright. The drinks were served to us in two tall glasses. Later, waiter #3 admitted to me that this was not real beer and Harry came over to us and said, "real stuff don't it?"

During our stay I saw drinks served at various tables in small wine glasses which appeared to be wine and also drinks in larger glasses that appeared to be ginger ale hi-balls.

During the dances we saw couples kissing, rubbing their bodies and making themselves in an unclean manner.

(Canary Cottage - Inv. V)

Part of these acts took place while Louie Weiss sat at a table near the orchestra and I saw him laugh when a young couple rubbed their bodies. He also laughed when the female entertainers (largest of the two female entertainers) shook her body and breast.

Waiter #3 was standing next to our table when Mr. Weston came to our table and told Inv. V that Kitty De Joe wanted to dance with him. When Inv. V told waiter #3 it was against the law, he replied, "I know it, go right ahead and I will speak to management and fix it up and no one will say anything." Inv. V then danced with Kitty De Joe.

Louie Weiss talked and sat with the patrons, received people at the door. Etc. and was very active in general.

On one occasion when Barry De Witt came to our table he asked us how we liked the service and drinks and Inv. V said that the shi-ballis contained enough force to kill a horse and Harry replied "That's all we sell". He also said that any time we wanted to be fixed up to call him over. He also inquired of us as to who the other party was and if they were alright etc. (referring to Kitty De Roe's table) and Inv. U told him they were friends of ours and were alright and gave them what they wanted.

Kitty De Roe and her party left at about 11 1/2 p.m.

We left at 11:45 p.m. and stopped at a drug store at 3900 Cottage Grove Ave. where Inv. U purchased sealing wax and candles. We then proceeded to the Ill. Central station at 39th St where we joined the other party and the exception of Miss Colles and sealed our bottles.

Inv. U and myself then took our girls to 6022 Kenwood Ave. arriving there at about 11:00 p.m. We then proceeded to 60 W. Madison St. where we had a short lunch arriving there at about 1:40 a.m.

We then proceeded to the office arriving there at about 2:05 a.m., where we locked our 4 bottles in our drawers and sealed the drawer and found same as we left them on my arrival Monday at 1:30 P.M. (Jan. 28, 1918).

We turned our bottles over to Mr. R. Also saw two prostitutes sitting with a man whom I know to be connected in some way at 3100 Ellis Ave. Their names are Maria and Aida.

10 So. Clark St. (Saloon - 1 of fl)

Tuesday Jan. 29th 1918

In company with Inv. X - Entered this saloon at about 1:30 p.m. and sat at the lunch counter, ordering a light lunch.

At the rear end of the counter we heard a man who is employed here as a porter and waiter say: "The hell with the war; the hell with the country. One fellow tried to arrest me and I knocked him down and I do the same with the next one. Why should I fight for this country? I have no thought here. If I had some land maybe it would be different."

This man is of German appearance and accent, 5 ft 8 or 9 inches tall, 165 lbs, blue eyes, medium length short hair, one tooth missing in front.

He also said he came from Germany and said he didn't have his first papers and they couldn't make him take his first papers. He is in restriction zone for Alien enemies.

In company with Geo. X.- I entered this saloon at about 1:30 p.m. and sat at the lunch counter.

We entered into conversation with the cook here whom I know as Barney. I saw an unshaven woman sitting in the rear room and I asked Barney if he could fix us up to which he replied, "Sure, come back later or sometime this evening. She has a date now and is waiting for a guy but you fellows come back later and I will fix you up with her."

Same to be operating as a house of assignation. On the inside of the 2nd floor about six met a colored woman (apparently the maid), who told us to wait and we could see the landlady.

Soon a white woman about 35 years old came to us and when I told her we had a couple streetwalkers and wanted to know if we could bring them tips to Mr. flatshamer said, "Yes, do you" want to stay all night?" To which she replied "Yes." She then said she would let us have room for all-

She also wrote her telephone number on a slip of paper which she gave to Mrs. X and said her name was

Irv. X- later introduced to me as Mr. Scott.
After Mr. Scott had some conversation with a waiter who was later introduced to me as "Mr. Rose."
the waiter invited me into the rear room where he introduced us to a girl who was sitting alone in a booth, known as Virginia De Wall.
Rose then invited us to buy drinks and we were served suits. A bottle of beer and one glass of whiskey for which I paid $0.60.

We saw Mr. Scott sitting in another booth with two women and a man. Soon Mr.
Scott left with his female companion and introduced us to the girl and told us they were going to a room for an immoral purpose.

Virginia solicited us to prostitution (French Style) for the sum of $20.00 plus $1.00 for a room and said she takes her tricks to the People's Hotel on Van Buren St. and used to go to the La Plante Hotel.

One of the entertainers (female) also came to our booth and asked Mr. X to come back soon to see her.

The first drinks were served at about 9:30 p.m., while the last round was served at about 12:00 a.m. (Monday Feb. 4th 1918), all drinks being served by colored waiter #1.

After ordering our lunch the waiter asked me if we didn't want beer to drink with it. The beer was brought to the table in dark brown bottles, when the waiter poured same into tall glasses (same as on our visit here of Sunday Jan. 27th 1918).

The next round of drinks being whiskey /di-balls (as ordered) tasted strongly of whiskey. These also were served in the same manner as on Jan. 27th, being carried to our table in small bottles corked with a mettle cap.

On the fourth round when Miss Coles ordered a crème de menthe the waiter said that he could only served the white kind and it was served. I tasted this drink and it tasted the same as any ordinary crème de menthe.

Several of the hi-balls served to others at our table and they all tasted strongly of whiskey as well as those served to myself.

They were also joined by Harry De Witt (manager) and on another occasion we were joined by Louie Weiss.

In both instances each were served with ginger ale hi-ball and both drinking a portion of the hi-ball and I tasted each drink and they also contained whiskey. When each drink was ordered I told the waiter to make good ones for Louie Weiss and Harry De Witt.

We also saw a soldier (2nd Lieutenant) sitting at one table with a party of three persons, a soldier (private) sitting at another with a party of three persons and a sailor at another table with a girl.

The 2nd Lieutenant was served with 5 glasses of ginger ale that appeared to be ginger ale hi-balls. On one occasion when
This soldier went to the lavatory I followed him back and entered into a conversation with him trying to get his name Etc.
However he gave me no satisfaction and said I could call him "Jack.
He would not say he was getting tipsy at his table.
We also saw the private soldier served with 3 glasses of liquor which appeared to be hi-balls. In the same manner as above I tried to learn what he was being served with Etc. but got no satisfaction.
The 2nd Lieutenant was here when we arrived and left with his party at about 12:10 a.m. and the private soldier arrived here with his party about 10:15 p.m. and left at about 12:30 a.m.
The sailor was served with a water colored liquid (probably cream de meath) I be remained about 1 hour.
Sir U also pointed out to me a girl whom he said was a former inmate of apt. 18 - 140-46 45th St. She was sitting at a table about 10 feet from ours and I noticed hairy De Witt spent a good deal of time at her table, talking, laughing, etc.

Two young men entered and were ushered to a table next to ours by Louis Weiss and the three immediately entered into a whispering conversation. Sir U told me he recognized the two men as being from Van Praagh's gambling house on South Wabash Ave. They were served with mounds of drinks that appeared to be ginger ale hi-balls.

Later, when we purchased a hi-ball for Louis Weiss which he drank at our table, Sir U introduced him to each of us as Louis Weiss, the boss. I told Louis that I had a girl entertainer who in her entertaining was very attractive and would draw trade but I invited that she must not get in bad, to which Louise replied "Oh, that's alright, we don't have to tear the mark down here and told me to bring the girl down and he would try her out. He later told me a good girl would be worth $30 or $35 per week if she can make herself attractive.

One young couple dancing rubbed their bodies to get their while Louise Weiss sat at the table next to ours and we saw him laugh at them and appeared to be amused.

Louise Weiss was even more active on this visit than on Jan. 17, 1918. We saw him sit and mingle with patrons, walking about lively in and out of the service bar and I also heard him tell the piano player to play something lively and warm up.

We also saw the young man entertainer dance with patrons several times. This also took place in the presence of Louise Weiss.

We also saw patrons of different tables dancing with one another and the dancing was just as suggestive as on our visit of Jan. 27, 1918.

On our way out, after I met Miss Coles and Mrs. De Foe had shaken hands with Louie Weiss, I told Louie I had forgotten his name and asked what it was and he replied "Weiss." Then shook hands with Mr. Weiss and bade him good night.

Expenses $4.00
Home all day.

Did not work an account of working Sunday Jan 27th 1918.

Police officers in uniform drinking at bar of saloon.

I followed two police officers (Star numbers 956 and 2856) into the above saloon and heard them order, and saw them drink two glasses of whiskey each, for which neither officer paid any money.

I left shortly after and the officers were still hanging at the bar.

Complaint from J. P. A. in re-
Mable Finnegan and Sigh Ferry.

In company with Inv. X- I first visited this place at about 9:25 P.M. Wednesday Feb. 13th 1918. A boy about 9 years old could give us no interesting information, who answered the door.

On Thurs. Feb. 21st 1918 I called and talked with a woman on the telephone who said she was Mable Finnegan using the name Sigh Ferry as an alias;
and when I asked for an appointment with Mable, she became very indignant, said she did not know Sigh Ferry or any other man who works for the Blue Cab Co. She hung up the receiver.

I again visited this place at about 8:10 P.M. on Friday Feb. 22nd 1918. A man answering door said Mable was working.
I found no signs of immorality on either visit.

We were admitted by a woman in whom a previous visit said her name was Mrs. Thruh.

When we inquired about girl's Mrs. Thruh said that the being Saturday might all the girls would be busy and she would be unable to obtain one for us.
When we asked her if we could bring up two street walkers she replied, yes, and named a price of $200 cash for the use of a bedroom.
