Police officer drinking while on duty.

Police officer, star #436, entered this saloon and I saw him drink one glass of whiskey at the bar for which a civilian paid $1.50 to the bartender. We left at about 9:10 P.M. and the policeman remained.

Note: This is the same policeman I reported on Friday Feb. 23rd for drinking whiskey in a saloon at 1876 So. Kedzie Ave.

prostitution for the sum of $5.00 for herself plus $1.00 which she said she had to give to Isabelle (making a total of $7.00)
Two X paid a laundry bill of $1.17 for Isabelle.

Raid

After the search warrant had been read to Roa Luke we searched the premises and found:

18 full bottles of Edelweiss Beer and 9 empty bottles.

1 Bottle 1/3 full of H. S. T. Special Reserve Whiskey
5 empty whiskey flasks (same brand)

We also found two boys about 9 + 10 years old in the kitchen, one of whom Mrs. Luke called Eddie. I saw this same boy here on my visit on Feb. 27th 1918 while in company with U.S. Internal Revenue officer Harry Smith. On this date Roa Luke sent Eddie out to find Bessie (an inmate) for Harry Smith and myself.

We drove Roa Luke to the Harrison St. Police station and then to 531 Federal Bldg. where I turned all goods confiscated at this address over to Officer Brown who put them in a vault.

On the 2nd floor we met a woman whom on November 2nd 1917 told me her name was Mrs. Bueland and the keeper of this hotel. (I also saw Mr. Bueland here on January 2nd 1918. I obtained evidence here on both dates).

On a pretext of renting rooms I was told Mrs. Bueland that we had girls who were not on rooms and asked her if we could bring their wife and how to work it so we would not get in bad if the police came in. Mrs. Breeland said that the two girls could register together and we should register together and she would assign us to rooms 1 & 2 which are connected by a door. Then we could take six girls as we wished.

Mrs. R told Mrs. Breeland that we only wanted the rooms for a couple hours and asked her what the charges would be to which she replied, "$0.50 for each room."
We called at this place and received no response by ringing the bell and knocking on the door and we visited the office of the building at 404 E. 42nd St. and inquired for Mr. H.W. Dunn (agent).

A young man about 28 years of age who said he was Mr. Dunn told us that Mrs. Walker had jumped her lease about one week ago and that he was looking for her.

I picked up one of Mr. Dunn's cards (attached).

We were shown rooms by this man when two R. told him we wanted a room for the purpose of prostitution only and the man in charge said he would give him a front room, good for that, for $3.00 per week. He then told us to go to 2045 Warren Ave., and he would show

In the room,

Inr. R. and myself waited at the front door of 2045 Warren Ave. about 3 minutes when we were admitted into the front bedroom (1st fl. one street) by the man in charge. We noticed his shoes were dry and there is probably a way of getting into one house from the other without leaving the premises.

Here he told Inr. R. that he could have this room for $3.25 per week.

On the railway of the basement flat of 2043 Warren Ave. saw a full case of beer.

In 2045 Warren Ave. found a young man about 35 years old known as "Mike." The man in charge said he was only the "boy" while Mrs. Amber was downtown.

This is the same young man I watched on March 27th.

We were served 3 more glasses of beer for which I paid 10¢ plus 15¢ tip to Al. Lillian solicited me to prostitution for the sum of 90¢. When I asked her broken she could go, Lillian said she would fix it with Al. So we could go back in the kitchen of the saloon if I gave Al a 50¢ tip.

Lillian asked Al about it and Al said the boss was back there.

Lillian asked me to wait until the boss left the kitchen but used that to break away.

Inv. U argued with the clerk and finally the girls joined in.

Upon our entrance we looked for the mail, but did not see it on the office desk.

The clerk lifted the room and I gave Sandwich 50¢ for the time, etc., and Inv. U gave Marle 50¢ and we left. The girls remained. The argument with the clerk as Inv. U and myself were leaving and we left the girls there.

Betty asked me if she should call another girl. I consented and after using the telephone a young woman about 27 years old, 5 ft 5, 130 lbs. and a jeweler came in whom Betty introduced to me as "Rose" Rose solicited me to prostitution for the sum of $500 plus 20% for room rent.

Rose left soon saying that she had a date with a "trick" who buys her clothes and gives her plenty of money.

Betty solicited me to prostitution for the sum of $5.00 plus $1.00 for the room saying she would split the room rent (each of us to pay $1.00 in addition to the $5.00). She said she would take one of us for $5.00 plus $2.00 for the room. Betty also solicited me to prostitution (French style) for the same amount and said that old men usually prefer that style.

same to be operating as a house of assignation. On a pretense of renting a room, I was admitted by a mulatto woman about 35 yrs.
of age, 5 ft 6, 130 lbs., who said she was in charge during Mrs. Moonshine's absence.

Mrs. was shown the front room of the 2nd floor, for which rent same for $15.00 per week. When I asked her if I could bring my girl up to stay with me once in a while, she replied, "Yes, but you mustn't make noise or tell anyone. You will find Mrs. Moonshine a fine landlady that way."

On my way out I met a girl who said her name was Vera. During a conversation with Vera, Vera said she had a man keeping her and that he was a railroad man. Vera did not say they were not married but said she would visit me once in a while when her guy wasn't there. Vera also said she would go out with me and that a going man my age is "good chicken".
Off Duty all day on account of working as "Judge of Election" at the Polls.

Saw to be operating as a house of ill fame. I was admitted into the rear sitting room by a girl who later said her name was "Pearl." Another young man whom Pearl called "John" was sitting here.

Pearl solicited me to prostitution for the sum of 11 50c flat.

When leaving I gave her 50c when she asked me for a few nickels to use in the telephone.

J.P.R. Complaint

At the basement flat a young girl answered my knock on the door and, speaking thin, the door said that she was home alone and would not open the door. She also said that 'Karen' lives here.

Not getting satisfaction here I went to the middle flat (12 fl. our street) and this woman said that 'there were no girls living downstairs, there are several young ladies' and appeared to be a little hurt because of the questions I asked her. She also said that the people downstairs were respectable and do not make noise etc.

Same to be operating in a house of ill reputation.
On the 2nd floor we met the same woman, who acted in charge (same woman mentioned in my report on this place of Friday March 8th 1918).

In V.- told her we were stopping in our way from work to see if we could bring relief to streetwalkers tonight, whom we were to meet. She said yes, it would be alright, you will have tongues as man and wife. I get $2.00 for my rooms.

While buying a cigar in this place I noticed the door open that leads to the rear room and I saw back there, two tables occupied by four men each, playing cards and money in bills and silver on each table. One man came from the rear room to the store where we were, and asked change for a $5.00 bill and $10.00 bill.

I also noticed the windows in this place are painted with a dark paint (apparently to keep people from seeing what is going on inside). There are about 8 tables (cloth covered) in the rear room.

The girls said their names were Irene and Babe Miller (Tel. Superior 9907) and they live at 41 E. Illinois St., Apt. 6 and asked us to call on them sometime (this week). Later I heard Babe Miller solicit Iowa X for prostitution for the sum of $1.50 and $1.00 for all night. Irene solicited me to prostitution for the same amount, saying, "do you want to go over to the flat for a jazz?"

The girls would not leave the saloon without us paying them $5.00 each in advance so we splurged ourselves without spending more money.

We were directed there by two young men whom we met at 17 W. Madison St. One of them, who said his name was "Charlie" telephoned to these girls and made the appointment for us.

16 N. Lincoln
10 of 27.

Case in behalf of 5 year old boy—Born 9/10/1863.

When this case was called the attorney for the defense said that the adopted grandmother of the child (who now has custody of the child) had two sons both of whom have criminal records and their pictures in the rogues gallery and they are not fit to have permanent charge of the boy.

The defense also admitted that the woman known as Mrs. Smith, who was the keeper of the house at 16 N. Lincoln was not fit to have custody of the child as well, but motioned that the boy be adopted out to a neutral party.

Judge Arnold then continued the case to April 16, 1918 to give time to investigate the adopted grandmother, and said he would not need Mr. Thrasher's men to testify on that date.

Neither Mr. X nor myself were called on to testify.

I came to be operating as a disorderly saloon.
Just before entering the place two girls flirted with me and after we entered and seated ourselves at a table the same two girls opened the front door, looked in at us and slammed again.
They then came in and sat at our table in the south end of the room.
One of these women looked very much like a policewoman whom I knew of that traveled out of the L. Chicago Ave.

station about 14 months ago. I did not know her name, however Jack Inv. 0 and myself were very careful about making advancements.

We were served rounds of drinks and one of the girls said her name was "Ellen" and that they had a date withVPN for 1:30 a.m. and asked me to meet them on Friday at Divinity Pier and N. Black St. at 9:30 p.m.

The other girl who said her name was "Charlotte" rubbed her thumbs against mine etc. and told me that if she could make the date tomorrow she would just cut my head off. When I asked her if she charged a sure fee she replied, "No, I used to charge $10.00 but will only take $5.00 now on account of the war."

We were admitted into Room 228 by a girl whom I en. R — introduced to me as

"Bobby Morton." Here we found another girl whom was also introduced to me as "Teddy." Soon a man came in from an adjoining room whom Bobby introduced to me as "Mr. Bradford."

Bobby sat on the bed and continuously asked her some limits etc. After some conversation,

I heard Teddy say to Sue-Re: "Come on, let's talk business, are you going to bed." I did not hear her mention a price.

Bobby then asked me what I was going to do and I said, "What do you mean?" Bobby replied, "What are you going to do, are you going to bed?" I asked her for how much and she replied 75 cents for 5 minutes.

I made an excuse that I wanted to stay all night and Bobby said that she would lose money by that because they have trucks coming up at all hours and said if she stayed all night with one man she would lose $2.50 because she makes $2.50 a night.

I saw Sue-Re give Teddy 50¢. Bobby wrote her telephone number and address on a card for me (attached).

Some time to be operating as a disorderly saloon. Upon entering the place, we noticed girls sitting at a table with two men. One of these girls, Donna, continually looked over at our table and signaled. This girl was uncoordinated. Some man handed her something at her table and she got up and came over to our table and sat down without an invitation and immediately ordered a drink from the man whom she called "Fisch." The girl shook and drank a glass of something. This girl said her name was Linda. Linda called the other girl "Florance" and asked her to come (1004).
and sat with me but Frances in speech, Frances said that the man Florence had lost was her Florence's Daddy.

Frances said she would take Bur. P. and myself out to a place for $15.00 plus $2.00 cash for a room and insisted that we go in a Yellow Cab.

We three left and found Yellow Cab
#317 apparently waiting for us in front of the cabaret.

Frances instructed the cab driver to go to 8 E. 22nd St.

After entering this place we sat in a booth in the east end of the room and were solicited to buy drinks by a manager, a man about 28 yrs old, 5 ft 6, 130 lbs and dark complexion.

He told him we would split a bottle of beer and we were served with rounds, each round consisted of 2 glasses of lager beer accompanied by an empty and dry brown bottle.

When we asked the waiter if he could fix us up with some girls he told us to stick around.

A woman about 30 years old, 5ft 7, 160 lbs, and light complexion, wearing a pink jersey, announced the door and said her name was "Ruth".

When Inw U told her he was a friend of a friend of hers who had sent him a message, Ruth said that she was afraid to take a chance with us because she was within the 5 mile zone and that we would have to be brought up by someone she knew.

We entered the rear room from the bar and saw 2 girls sitting on the east side of the room unoccupied. After fluctuating in our mind one of the girls asked us to buy them a drink and the girls came and sat in our booth.
We were served many drafts of drinks.
The girls said they had a date here and thought they were out dressed. The girls said their names were "Bess" and "Ethel".
Bess said she could be their friends if we had $5.00.

Mrs. V asked her what she meant and she said "A visit to the "Holy Land" for $5.00".

"Holy Land" or "HOLEY LAND". We agreed to go with the girls and when discussing us to a place to go the telephone rang. Ethel answered the telephone and upon returning whispered something in Beulah's ear, when upon both girls got up and said they had to go now and asked us to meet them here at 11 P.M.

Upon returning here at 11 P.M. the girls did show up.

In company with Univ. X, entered the saloon (1 1/2 fl.) of 6745 So. Halsted St. and found no violation.

Departed on a sloop at 6:30 a.m.

To Halsted St. at about 7:05 p.m.

Walking up and down 6745 So. Halsted St., until about 7:30 p.m., when we entered the Englewood Inn at 6735 So. Halsted St., remained until 10:45 p.m.

As we entered the place, 2 soldiers in uniform were just leaving a table and we sat at this table. We were served with 1 bottle of Edelweiss Beer and finding no violation, we left for the Fountain Inn (6319 So. Halsted St.)

Univ. X and myself entered the Fountain Inn at about 10:45 p.m., and remained until 1:45 a.m. We seated ourselves at a table in the extreme east end of the room and noticed Univ. X and V. O. Whitaker sitting at a table next to ours. Soon Univ. X entered with R. D. McFarland (over) and another young man and they seated themselves at a table about 10 feet west of ours, later they came back to their table.

Herb X and myself had been served one bottle of Edelweiss Beer by waiter #19 and after two R. V.O. Whitaker and their friend sat at our table.

The waiter refused to serve any member of our table any alcoholic liquor because of the presence of the sailor in uniform at the table.

In account of four of us at one table two X and myself sat at another table in the southeast corner of the room where we were served one more bottle of Edelweiss Beer by waiter #19.

Soon a man (about 45 yrs. old, 5'11', 175 lbs. dark complexion, wearing glasses, a heavy black mustache and beard in front) whom two U. said was Ed. Weiss. I noticed this man come back toward our tables several times and stare at each of us.

Soon a young man whom was introduced to me as Charlie Griffin.

by Inv. U in the Canary cottage (3841-45 Cottage Grove Ave.) in October 1917.

Charlie spoke to some people at a table close by and when he looked up he noticed Inv. U with V.O. Whitaker (a sailor). Charlie said "Hello" to Inv. U and then looked at me and said "Hello" to me.

After being recognized by Charlie Leftford I suggested that Inv. U, X, V.O. Whitaker and myself leave before Charlie pointed us out to other members of the Fountain Inn.

(Inv. R had just previously to this incident with a sailor for the Englewood Inn.)

The four of us left the place making our exit from the bar room and when we got out on the sidewalk we saw Charlie Leftford poke his head out of the entrance to the cabaret and say something to the door man. The door man said something to police officer 701 who was standing close by #701 then walked to 63rd St. (I followed him) and I saw him say something to police officer 2069. #701 then walked back to the door man of the Fountain Inn and whispered to him nothing upon the door man entered the Fountain Inn, 701 walked around to the corner of the building as this to hide. When the door man reappeared, the whispered something to 701 and 701 in turn walked over underneath the "L" where 2069 was standing (apparently waiting). Both police officers watched us and tried to get close to us, however we all managed to keep a safe distance from them so they could not get a good look at either of us.

While we were in the Fountain Inn, I noticed Ed Weiss was very active, ushering people to tables and directing servers etc. I also saw police officer #101 enter twice and each time talk to Ed Weiss.

I also saw 2 sailors sitting at tables and soldiers in uniform dancing. I could not see what the sailors were drinking nor where the soldiers were sitting. We left the Fountain Inn at about 11:40 pm.

Inns U, X and Y O. Whitley walked up and down Halsted St., and later met Inns R and R D. M O. Barre (a sailor) at 63rd and Halsted St., where we attended until about 1 am. (Sunday April 14th 1918). We all worked most in Halsted St. about 1/2 mile and left the vicinity.

standing by. We were served with 4 glasses

When the beer was served the waiter distributed a metal check to each of the

The girl who sat next to me said her the checks were for and she said that They represented her commission on the sale of the beer. When Della placed the check in her stocking she showed me a bunch of checks (about 50) which she said she had made so far tonight.

Della said, each check represents 10¢ and I get 35¢ on the dollar.

I asked her if she made much money in a night and she replied, "Well, I get $1.00 commission on every 40¢, and girls.

The landlady 10¢ on a 40¢.

The girl sitting at my right put her leg over on my lap, and Della saw it and said to her, "Say, take your leg away, take care of your own man." It looked like that was going to be trouble over there between the girls for a while.

I heard the girl sitting with the other investigators solicit them to prostitution and heard the rum of $200 mentioned by one of the girls.

As we were about to leave Della said to me, "Ain't you going to jail me; and I asked what she charged and she said $200."

I asked Della how many girls there were in and she said 15 (I counted 15 girls). I also saw about 25 men sitting around.

As we entered I noticed a negro maid who was apparently in charge of the money taken in on tickets. I saw her give 7 girls, cheecks when the girls gave her money in bills.

Investigation

This place was crowded and it was about 5 minutes before the waiters found a free form. We drove then rushed to a table in the rear of the room mott to the orchestra. There was approximately 225 people sitting at tables and about 50 people standing near the door waiting for a table.

The orchestra here is of the original jazz type and girl entertainers were wearing in low minned dresses.

When the orchestra played for a dance the small dancing space could not accommodate the people who tried to dance and as a result, the couples in general just stood practically still rubbing their bodies together. I also saw men grab other women with their hands and feel up an down their legs. The dancers (over) could not commit more illicit acts with one another and at the same time stand up.
"Shimmy" dancing was popular.

I saw many men and women intoxicated and some of them trying to dance and hardly able to stand.

I saw several boys and girls sitting different tables who appeared to be about 18 years old, some of whom were interested.

It was not unusual to see men and women caress and embrace each other in here.

The women entertainers mingled with the patrons while they were not singing and solicited them to buy drinks. Two of these women came to a table next to ours and succeeded in having the men here buy them drinks.

Consort Island.
There were also 3 men entertainers who acted as singers and waiters while not singing.
All entertainers danced with the patrons.
While some of the entertainers sang the others passed a hat among the patrons for money.
We also saw a fight between 2 men in a bar in the opposite corner from where we sat. Later, on the outside I heard one of the men who was fighting say to another young man: 'wait - we will be out pretty soon the Sun of a B--'
I also saw 4 sailors in uniform here, 2 of whom were dancing.
We were served sandwiches, beer and coffee and a charge of 2.90 was made which Gov. V paid.
The beer was lager beer and was accompanied with 2 empty, dry brown bottles. These empty bottles could be seen on nearly every table here.

Inv. R. left the table twice, once he was gone for about 25 minutes and said when he returned, that 15 men had taken him to a house of prostitution next door.

We left at about 2:10 a.m.

came to be operating as a house of ill fame.

On the stairs of this place we met a woman whom I met introduced to me as "Goldie." Goldie told us to come in and we three entered the hallway of the house on the 2nd floor. Here Goldie solicited us to prostitution for the sum of $300 each, saying, "who wants to go to bed first?" I met Goldie what her price was and Goldie replied, "$300." Saying, "pay as you enter!"

Goldie said she will take me at a time only.

Entering thru the bar on the 1st floor we proceeded to the 2nd floor where we were met at the top of the stairs by about 14 girls.

One girl who later said her name was Teddy immediately took hold of my arm and I noticed girls also took hold of Inv. U's and Mr. Pollard's arms. Each being accompanied by one girl we were ushered to a table where the girls asked us to buy a drink. We were served wine & glasses of beer for which Inv. U paid 15/- plus a 10/- tip to the waiter.

The waiter in turn gave each girl a mental check when they placed in their stockings. After the drinks were consumed Teddy solicited me to prostitution for the sum of $200 saying, "ready to go to bed now.""

(over)
When I asked, for what purpose, Teddy replied,
"for a jazz party."
I also heard the girls sitting with Mr. U- and Mrs. Pollard solicit them to prostitution for the sum of $200.
In the front of the 2nd floor were bedrooms about 14 in all. In the rear room (which is the receiving room I counted 10 tables, 18 men and two waiters.
All the girls were gowned in seamnases or Pantelettes slit in front.
I saw a woman who appeared to be The Madam, standing in front of the hall that leads to the bedroom. A girl and a man who disappeared down this hall stopped and gave the Madam money in bucks and the girl in turn received a metal check.
I saw in many instances these girls expose their bare-limbs and in one instance one girl sitting with 2 men at another table deliberately exposed her "private.

During our stay here I saw girls going and coming from the hall that leads to the bedroom, even accompanied by a man.

I also saw three young men sitting at a table with one girl drinking beer that appeared to be about 17 years old.

As we left we passed out three the saloon on the 12 floor and the bartender was talking as follows: The girls are upstairs, take the stairs to your left, plenty pretty girls upstairs, pick out the one you want. Turn to your left. The bar was crowded with men.

We were served with 6 glasses of beer for which I paid 75¢ plus a 10¢ tip for the waiter.

The girl who sat with me said her name was Violet. After the waiter served the drinks she gave each girl a metal check.

Violet told me each check represents a 10¢ purchase of beer and she gets 5¢ on each 10¢ check at the end of each day.

Violet solicited me to prostitution for (over) the sum of $100, saying, "let's go sober for a little." I also heard the girls with Mrs. U and Mr. Pollard solicit them to prostitution for the same amount.
I counted 17 girls here all of whom were garbed in Siemens and pantaloons, 8 tables, 7 waiters and saw one colored maid and a white porter.
There are about 14 bedrooms in the rear east of the 2nd floor and girls accompanied by men were entering and coming from the hall that leads to the bedrooms continually. In addition to the tables
There are 7 large benches in the northwest of the room which were loaded with men and girls. I counted 13 men here.
(Passing by this place at 4:10 a.m. we saw men going into this place and the lights were still burning on the 3rd floor while the saloon on the 1st floor was closed.)

Bromham, Ill., Coney Island.

Violation of Sunday Closing Law.

We entered and seated ourselves at a table almost 25 ft. from the door.

There must be approximately 300 people here sitting at tables.

We saw 1 soldier inside and we saw 2 sailors leave the place as we were about to enter.

The dancing here was very suggestive and we saw several men intoxicated, some of whom appeared to be about 18 years old.

We were served 4 glasses of 'light beer' which the waiter said was Edelweiss beer and M. Beckwith was served with a 20-cent fry while I ordered and was served a ginger ale hi-ball. I tasted the hi-ball and tasted very strongly of whiskey. Each glass of beer was accompanied by a small empty brown bottle labeled, "Edelweiss, a non-intoxicating cereal beverage." The inside of these bottles were dry, now and then a waiter would take one of (over)
These bottles and put it on another table close by. (apparently short of bottles).

We saw amber colored liquor (apparently gin, balls and beer) served at other tables nearby.

At one table I saw a girl about 17 years old sitting with women and men. She was drinking what appeared to be beer.

Shimmy dancing was popular and in many instances the couples just stood still and rubbed their bodies together in a way as to keep time with the music.

Several of the women I noticed were intoxicated.

The beer we had was lager beer.

There were three girls and three men entertainers, making six in all.

The entertainers past the patron with a hat and I put 10¢ in the hat.

We also saw the entertainers dancing and drinking with patrons.

Later Inv. U ordered and was served a Dry Martini. I also tasted this and found it to be whiskey. A change of 75 for the beer and 40 for the whiskey was paid by Inv. U-

Inv. X ordered and was served a Manhattan cocktail. I tasted this and found same to be, or contain, whiskey.

There were 2 girls entertaining here all of whom danced and drank with patrons. The dancing was suggestive, many of the couples dancing the shimmy.

I gave the porter in the lavatory a 25¢ (over) tips for a clean towel etc, and paid 65¢ plus a 10¢ tip to the waiter for my meal.

One empty brown bottle bearing the label "Edelweiss" accompanied the glass of Lager beer served by Mr. D. I confiscated this bottle.

Mr. X purchased 1/2 pt. Old Elk whiskey for 75¢, which he carried and put in his pocket.

H. W. L.
Chicago May 15th 1918.

Mr. Samuel P. Thresher.

Inpt.- Committee of Fifteen.

My Dear Mr. Thresher:

I hereby tender my resignation as an investigator for the Committee of Fifteen and regret to state that the conduct of our chief investigator, Mr. William Goldhersh, is so unendurable that I cannot stand it any longer.

On May 15th 1918 Mr. Goldhersh held a girl of immoral character on his lap whom we picked up on the road north of Burnham and continued to sing and kiss this girl from the time we picked her up until our arrival at 16 W. Madison St., Chicago.

This happened in the presence of Mr. Toland and Mr. Buckwith, both government officials, and our guests and I made remarks upon our arrival in Chicago to impress me that they were acquainted with Mr. Goldhersh.

It was necessary for me to apologize to these two government officials in behalf of the Committee of Fifteen.

Mr. Goldbirk is also in the habit of removing his coat in a pool room while playing pool, exposing a naval cap hanging from his belt, which drew considerable attention from the pool players. The first time I noticed this was about four weeks ago at 14 N. Clark St.

Mr. Goldbirk also told me that two brother-in-laws on the floor were dangerous. When I asked him why, he replied that if one X or myself done anything evoked, one wouldウィキシート the other.

I could mention numerous other reasons why I am resigning, all of which pertain to Mr. Goldbirk's ignorance, ill-mannered, domineering and abusive ways and talk and can bear it no longer.

I trust that the Committee will help me in securing another position when I will greatly appreciate because of resigning without a position in sight.

Yours respectfully,

Same time operating as a house of ill-fame.
We were admitted in the receiving room by a colored woman who said her name was "Flomea" and was the "madam."

Soon a white woman came in who Flomea introduced me to as "Kate."

Flomea solicited me to prostitution for the sum of $100 plus $50 for a room by saying: "Let's go to bed."

"Kate also solicited me to prostitution for the sum of $200 plus $50 for the room in the presence of Flomea, the madamly saying, "Do you want to go to bed?"

I also heard Kate solicit two X's for $250 plus $50 for the room for the night.
I gave $20 to Flomea and two X's gave $10 to keep her confidence.

Kattie came to be apparently passing as a house

Entering at the door of this apartment, we found three young colored men standing here who said they were waiting to get in.
I asked them if Kattie was here and they replied "yes."

Soon a young colored woman about 28 years old came to the door and admitted the 3 young men. When I inquired for "Kattie," the young woman said, "I am sorry but I only let colored men in. My husband and I are afraid of white men and I can't let you in."

Kattie then came to the door and after speaking to her, Kattie said she wouldn't go out with us some place if we wanted a jazz.

Mrs. U asked her what she charged for a jazz and Hattie replied "$2.00".

Hattie also said that the "keeper of this flat was afraid of Irish men and that was the reason she would not let a white man in."

Investigation

After being seated at a table in the south-east room I ordered and was served a bottle of lager beer for which I paid 21/2 shillings & 1/2 halfpenny to the waiter.

The beer was drawn in and poured from a dark brown bottle which bore two labels, into a tall glass. The waiter carried the bottle away after emptying it.

There were about 75 people present, 2 musicians and two female entertainers.

The majority of the patrons were drinking beer served in the same manner as was mine. Some were served amber-colored liquor which appeared to me to be a gingerale bier-balls.

I also saw a man of Jewish descent, 5 ft 5, 175 lbs, and dark complexioned acting as manager.

I inquired of the young woman at the desk who checks the costs and that's how long she worked. She told me that this place stays open as late as 3 and 4 a.m. It all depends on the crowd they have. I asked if we could purchase drinks right to the room on Saturday (Sunday a.m.) and she said "Yes," I did not see Louie Weiss this visit, I entered again at 12:55 a.m. and found a seat in the southwest room about 15 feet from where Louie Weiss was seated at a table. Louie Weiss looked at me but showed no indication of recognizing me as one of his enemies.

I ordered and was served another bottle of lager beer for which I paid 25¢ plus a 10¢ tip to the waiter.

This bottle of beer was served in the same manner as the above bottle. I saw two X's marked with a bullet of liquor in the same manner.
