Special Report of Investigator U

on Soldiers and Sailors

Saturday, November 17, 1917 - 7:15 to 8:30 PM

In company with Investigators R, S, and T

Standing at the entrance of the alley on the south side of Van Buren street between State and Plymouth, in company with Investigator S, I saw 25 sailors and 5 soldiers enter the alley for about 100 feet, stay there a few minutes and then Come Back. On account of the darkness I could not see what they were doing. But from all indications I would say that they went into the alley to drink. Most all of them appeared to be intoxicated. They would enter in groups of 2 or 3, and some of the groups returning a number of times. In most cases they entered with a civilian. One civilian in particular a cripple made 3 trips with sailors.

After a civilian whom we saw enter the alley and who was arrested a few minutes later we left.

Said to be operating as a disorderly saloon.

When we asked the bartender where all the girls of the neighborhood were he said he did not know, but that there was one in the rear room.

He went to the rear room and returning said it was alright and for us to go back there.

He also said that the girls did not have escorts, and that he should not have denied them, although he did.

going to the rear room, being served there by the bartender we met 3 women. We were served with 2 rounds of drinks, for which I paid for the first round. Irv & I paid for the second round.

The women were very loud in their talk & told many dirty stories. One of the women boasted to Mr. & I that she called me in the room.

I was at a place named [illegible].

Special Report of Investigator U on Sailors and Soldiers
Saturday December 1st, 1917
In Company with Investigators L & V

At 5:30 P.M. in front of saloons at 128-20 Clark St.

We saw a civilian go up to two sailors. He got a paper bill from them and then went into the saloon of 128-20 Clark St. In a few moments the civilian came out and gave the sailors a flask wrapped in tissue paper, together with a few silver coins.

The three men then went into the alley just south of 128-20 Clark St. I followed and found 11 sailors with one civilian.

I saw one of the sailors holding a small flask up to his mouth.

While in the Cabaret Room of the saloon at 2275 Cottage Grove

At 11:30 P.M. we met Mrs. Anna Hartman in front of 4031 Drexel Blvd. She ushered us to her flat (3rd floor) where we spent 2 hours.

She told us that she has lived there 4 years.

She said that Mrs. Marge Albenz lives in one of the flats of the building and rents 6 flats of the same building as furnished apartments mostly to single men, whom she has seen bring women there, for what she believes to be immoral purposes. Also, that Mrs. Albenz is a very bad woman for the reason that she visits Cabarets, and drinks liquor.

While there I did not see or hear anyone enter the building. I did hear a man and a woman's voice in the flat below us.
Mrs Hartman told us that she expected us to break in the flats and drag out the girls and men and Mr Ahern and lock them up.

From what I heard and saw there was nothing to make me believe that there is Commercial vice in the building.

Special Report of Investigator

Wednesday December 5th 1917

in Company with Investigator V.

on 3526 Grand Blvd 1st South

5:40 to 6:00 P.M.

We were admitted by a colored woman who said her name was Victoria. She appeared to be the maid. When we asked for Anna Phillips, she told us that Anna was out but would be in any moment and for us to wait. She ushered us to a rear sitting room and told us to take our overcoats off, to smok, & to make ourselves at home. Before we spoke to her about girls she told us that if she knew us, she would call in a couple of girls for us.

When Anna Phillips came in (she said she was Anna Phillips) she was very indignant in finding us in her flat. When we said a friend of hers had sent us, she said a mistake must have been made.
