In about 35 minutes 2 girls Camp Bell Reed introduced them as Addy and Maud.

Addy insisted on us buying her beer and we were served with 2 macoy bottles of Edelweiss, for which Inv. V. paid 100.

Addy solicited me to prostitution for the sum of 5-00.

I heard Maud solicited Inv. V. to prostitution for the sum of 5-00.

Thursday December 13th 1917 6:30 to 6:40

Entering the above place I found a woman and the bartender (who is known as Tom Black) sitting at a small table in the bar room.

Tom got up and served me with a soft drink. I tried to talk to him about things in general, but he was not talkative so I left.

I waited outside in order to follow the woman. Just after I noticed which was about 70 ft. the woman came out. She walked east and entered 8 East 22nd St. In less than a minute she came out, stood a few moments on the sidewalk, looked east & west, and then proceeded east to Cottage Grove and walked on the east side of Cottage Grove Ave walking south, when she disappeared at the mouth of the first alley south of 22nd St.

Friday, January 4th 1918 at 2:30 PM

While Joe Kindu stood in hallway out of sight, Inv. V. and myself entered three door leading to parlor, which we found open. We found a colored woman, alone, whom I recognize as the same woman who had solicited Inv. V. and myself to prostitution Dec. 24th 1917.

I said Hello Annabelle, & she said my name is not Annabelle, and what do you want. I told her that I was keeping my promise to call again as she had told me too.

She said she told Inv. V. last night (meaning Jan 3rd) that there was nothing doing.

Joe Kinder then entered and asked her if she was at the Otis Block yesterday & she said yes.

She also told Joe that Mr. V and myself were at her flat Dec 24th & that we were inquiring for a Mr. Schwartz & that I gave her 50¢.

Special Report of Investigator U
Re: Sam. Buhgdorf.
Saturday January 5th 1918

I met Dam at Lasalle Hotel Bar at 3 P.M. (Inv. X. covered both of us.) We had a glass of beer each and talked for about 20 minutes. We then went to 169 W Madison and had some lunch. At 4 P.M. we went to 119 W Madison which is a pool room, and stood around till 4:30. I then left and went to the squad and then to the Otis. At 5:20 I returned to the pool room and said goodbye to Dam and got back to squad at 5:25. Inv X returned right after me.

The only important thing that Dam said was that if the Committee of Fifteen keeps after him the way they have he is very apt to go over to the other side.

Re: Sam Burgdorf
Wednesday January 9th 1918

By an appointment made over the telephone by Mrs. Burgdorf, I met Sam at the Hotel Laclede at 2:30 P.M. (Inc. X covered both of us)

I spent 20 minutes with Sam at the hotel bar, where we had a glass of beer each, and in that time told me that Smiley had fired him to go Minneapolis to work on a job he had worked on before, and that when he got back that Smiley had guaranteed him steady work. That Smiley told him that the C. of F. had 2 new men one of which had a hankie jaw, 145 lbs, and the description given of the other man was correct, because Sam had seen him. Also that Syd was going to be fired this coming Saturday.

That Smiley also told him (over) that on account of that dirty little Jew — he (Smiley) has lost lots of the C of T business.

Sam said that he was going to write Mr. Thrasher a 3 or 4 page letter telling him just what he thinks of him.

came to be operating as a house of ill fame.

We were admitted by a woman known to me as Matilda Durant. She is the same woman I met on my previous visit.

She solicited us to buy beer and she served us with 2 bottles of Edelweiss beer charging us 10.

I asked her solicitor 10. X to

prostitution for the sum of $5.00.

As we were leaving I asked her if she would sell me a couple of bottles of beer, as we were going around the corner to see a friend, I did not care to go all the way down to the saloon. She said she would wrap 2 bottles of Jelluken beer, charging me 40.00.

Expenses at above named place 2.40

Note on my previous visit I promised to buy her a Desk Calendar and Memo File, which I bought for 40.75 before I left.

We were met on the second floor of the 1897 side by a man about 55 years old, 5 ft 5 in., with a hump on his back.

We told him that we had a couple of street walkers down stairs, and asked him if he would rent us a room. He said he would, & that his price would be $1.00 a room.

We asked him if he was one of 2nd floor

9:25 AM

Same to be operating as a house of assignation.

We entered the entrance of 1803. As we stood at the head of the stairs on the 2nd floor, we saw a man, about 55 years old, 5 ft. 5 in. with a hump on his back, come out of a room at the top of the stairs of 1807. We walked over to him, and asked him where Amelia was.

he said "in the basement."

We asked him if he was a "straus" and he said "I am father of Mrs.

Mr. V. told him that we stay alright because Amiel had rented him a room on the other side some time ago.

We all then walked to the 1803 section and the man pointed to a front bedroom and Mr. V. said "that's the room I had but I don't want it because it is too cold."

We all then walked to the 1807 section.

We then told him that we had a couple of street walkers down stairs and asked him if we could get a room. The man said "Yes" and named a price of 1.00.

Friday January 25th 7:50 to 8:00 AM 1918

In Company with U.S. Internal Revenue officer Lawrence Kilcourse, U.S. Marshal
Mr. Streeter, and Police officer Thorough.
I left the Federal Bldg. in an automobile, arriving at the above address at 7:50 AM.

Matilda Durant admitted to Mr.
Kilcourse that she sold liquor without a government license. I then read a search warrant to her. I then lead the men to the pantry where they found 2 full cases (2 1/2 bottles each) of Edelweiss
beer, and one empty case of Edelweiss beer bottles.

While officers Thorough and myself watched Matilda Durant, Kilcourse, and Streeter continued the search but did not find any other liquor.

I noticed on the kitchen sink
2 empty whiskey flasks, and about 20 metal beer bottles tops. On the kitchen table I saw 1 Cutting board (such as used in a saloon to cut up lemon peel) about 8 whiskey glasses, and 3 water glasses.

Kilcourse then marked in pencil the labels of several bottles of both the full cases of beer, also on the side of the cases.

Streeter then read a warrant to Matilda Durant, and took her away with him.

Though and myself carried the two full cases of beer down to the automobile, and in company with Kilcourse drove back to the Federal Bldg.

We placed the cases in a vault, after though and myself marked several bottles and labelled the cases (the vault is in room 531)

I got a receipt for the two cases from W. H. Sage, Deputy Collector which is attached herewith.

Sunday, January 27th, 1918, 9:30 to 11:45 P.M.

In company with

{Miss McNamaras with Unit 1 table
Miss Smith ... V.
Miss Coles with Mr. Weston} 1 table
Miss Kitty De Foe ... " Damon

Both tables in east end of South room and were about 15 feet apart.

At about 8:45 P.M. Inv. V and myself searched each other in the Lake Park Ave. Elevated station for liquor. I found none on Inv. V. He said he found none on me. We arrived at 3841 Ellis Ave 4th floor north at 9:00 P.M. where we found the above named people
Miss Coles, Miss "Kitty" De Foe, Damon,
W. Weston left at 9:15. The rest of us left at 9:25.

Our party arrived at the Canary Cottage at 9:30 P.M., and found the other party seated.

We were ushered to our table by a man who said that his name was Harry De Witt, and that he was the manager.

Between the hours of 9:30 and 11:45 we ordered the following:

Just as we were being seated I noticed 2 uniformed policemen leave the service bar room and walk out. I could not get their numbers.
We then ordered the above specified drinks in the order and paying the amounts as shown.

Of the 4 Beers served to Inv. V. I saw him confiscate a portion of each one, transferring same into a bottle. I tasted his first beer and it tasted like real beer.

I confiscated portions of the three highballs served to me, transferring same into a bottle. From the taste thereof I would say they contained whiskey.

We were solicited to buy all drinks served to us by Colored waiter No. 8, except the first 2 Beers which were served by Colored waiter No. 3, and except the round of drinks which I paid for served at the other table of our party except for the two bottles of ginger ale highballs which we took but left with us.

As we finished our lunch I called over a man who seemed to be in charge and whom I heard call a man by the name of "Louie". (Louie is about 40 years old, 5 ft 9 in, 170 lbs, blue eyes, bald, Jewish appearance.) I asked him if he was the manager and he said yes and that his name was Harry De Witt. After our talk he said that he would see that I would be treated right.

Waiter No 3 solicited us to buy drinks. We ordered 2 beers. No 3 said that they could only serve Bevs, but that we should it be alright. We were served (Mr. V. and myself) from 2 brown bottles, without labels, samp being poured into tall glasses.

It tasted like real beer. Harry De Witt then came over and said "real stuff. Isn't it". Waiter No 3 then came over and I heard him say to Mr. V. "that that is real beer".

Miss Mc Namara + I danced three dances. The dance floor covers parts of the three rooms. As we danced I counted 40 people present. Most of the drinks on the table appeared to be gingrvale Nightfall. I noticed 2 drinks which appeared to be "sloe gin fizzes" and 3 drinks served in small brown glasses which looked like port wine. I did not notice any beer.

Amongst the dancers & couples danced in a very suggestive way; one couple of whom would kiss each other when they arrived in the north room.

One of the girls entertainers as she sang each song, went thru the motions of a "belly dancer."

Mr. Winston came over to me and said his friend Miss Kitty De Foer wanted a dance with me. Walter No. 3 heard him, and I said to Walter No. 3 that that was against the law & that I had better not dance. He told me he knew it was but for my to go ahead that he would speak to police & fix it up. I then danced... with Miss "Kitty" De Forre.

Louise Weiss was very active receiving people as they came in, going back and forth to the service baroom and setting at different tables.

Harry De Witt Camo over to me a number of times, asking if I liked the service and the drinks. He said if I didn't get what I wanted to let him know. I told him that the highballs which I was drinking had enough whiskey to kill a horse, and he said that was the only kind they sold, and that any limit I wanted to get fixed into to come and see him.

He asked me if the party at the other table (pointing to Miss Kitty De Ford's table) were alright, I said they give them all the booze they wanted because they are friends of mine, and he said alright whatever you say goes.

At about 11:15 P.M. Miss Kitty De Forre's party left.
At 11:45 P.M. our party left, and went to the drug store at 3200 Cottage Grove Ave., where I bought sealing wax and a candle. We then went to the 39th Street 1 cent station where we met our other party, and sealed our bottles.

Inw. V. and myself then took our girls home to 662 E. Tenneywood, arriving there at about 11:00 A.M.

We then went down town and had a bite to eat at 60 W. Madison St.

We then went to the squad room, arriving there at 2:05 A.M., locked up our samples in the desk, and sealing the drawers, which we found unbroken when we arrived at 1:45 P.M. Jan 28.

My expenses at above named place $3.25.

Not on other side.
Note: I saw 3 prostitutes present. They were Adell and Mauds whom Imit V and myself secured evidence against at 3400 Ellis apt 46.

And a woman who solicited me to prostitution at 2334 Indiana Ave.

dans to be operating as a house of assignation.

On the 2nd floor I was introduced by Mr. R. to a man by the name of Emil Strauss.

We told him that we had a couple of "Chickens" downstairs, died in a saloon, and had come up to see him about getting a room in order to "Jazz"("-/-").

He said that he would fix us up, and ushered us to the front part of the second floor and showed rooms 2 + 1, saying that he would charge us 50c for each room.

He said the rooms were cold, but would go down in the basement and fire up.

came to be operating as a house of ill-fame.

We were admitted into the flat by a woman whom we met in the outside hall, and who said her name was Meard.

She ushered us into a bedroom off the hall. The bed was unmade, and on the bureau was 5 empty bottles of Table Vicks. While she half smoked a saloon, and that Florence would be back soon.

After a few moments a woman came in who said her name was Florence. She told us that she didn't want people in her place unless they brought up by somebody she knew. That she is pinched about once a month and wasn't looking for trouble. Also that she knew everybody over at "Des Plaines".

Just as we were getting ready to go again she said "This isn't a conversation parlor," the door bell rang. Two uniformed sailors entered one of whom she called Walter.

As we were leaving she told us that we could come back if we could swap who we were with.
