I was taken by a girl who we met at 1886 Grosvenor, and who told her name was Sellick's niece. We entered and were secured by waiter. Selling of bars and glass of brandy for which she said 40s. A part of the money she wished me to put to prostitution in the shape of 300, and insisted that I go to a house with her, saying that she had a room ready. I refused the idea and left her there.

Somebody was sitting in a house of ill-fame. We were lured into that sitting by a woman.

She accused me of being a prostitute and named the price to make $200 for one hour.

He was directed to go to that door by a man. They were acting as clerks in a drug store on 1035 5th Street.

While in the sitting room I heard the voice of a baby. After finding Esther, she told (continued elsewhere) see that this lady and 2 weeks old, and a boy, and that another child nine months old and 13 months old.

I had a conversation with Mr. G. M. who said he should not believe the girl's story.
I think she may have been the one who wrote the note.

Saturday January 19th 1918

The company with Mr. X, Y, and Z entered the above described cafe about 9:30 P.M. and marched down one at 9:50 P.M.

After being introduced to a different table by the host, waiter #14 solicited us to try drinks. We were served with 1 bottle of "Edelweiss Beer" to which the waiter replied, "The beer will cost you 20¢, and in addition a 10% premium.

I understood this waiter to take a 10% tip, and another 10% for Premium."

We entered the adjacent room where we were seated at a different table, and some waiter solicited us to try drinks, and were served with 1 bottle of "Edelweiss Beer" for which I paid 30¢ for a 10% tip and 10% for Premium.

I also noticed other patrons protesting against this order.
