I went to be operating as a house of ill.
I was admitted to a room by a woman who said her name was Dora. (left 207) Dora solicited me to prostitution for the sum of $3.00 for a short time and $5.00 for all night. By saying, "What do you say, kid, if we go to bed, for a jay?"
I was taken to this apartment by the Colored City Clerk, who said his name was "Edd." Edd told me that he could only take one man at a time.
I went in first, while my companion waited outside.

Five minutes after I came out, my companion entered while I remained outside, from 6 1/2 to 6 20 P.M.

Doro told me that I had to give Ed 50¢ to keep his confidence.

I gave Doro 50¢, and my trust is always collected the money.

Marie solicited me to prostitution, for the sum of $500 for a short time, and $2000 for all night. By saying, "Let's go to bed for a jazz."

Estella urged me to go to bed with Marie. By saying, "Why don't you take Marie to bed for an hour. She will show you a good time."

In the kitchen under the desk I noticed about 3 dozen empty beer bottles bearing the labels of Heineken and Budweiser. I noticed a girl in the hallway, whom Estella called "Proche." [Note] Estella, Marie, and Proche lived on Ramona.

She replied, "You can give me anything you want, I have no reason to sell for, so you can make your own price."

I gave the R girl, Morgan, one silver dollar, and said, "Will that pay for the fare?

She replied, "Yes, thank you."

We were solicited to prostitution; I was solicited to prostitution by Elsa, for the sum of $500 for a short time, and $100 for all night, specifying a room.

By saying, "Let's go to bed."

Morgan said, "Well, what are you going to do, it is getting late."

She also said that if we stayed all night she would not charge us for the room,

Morgan showed me a picture of the boy, who she said was eight years old, and staying with her folks in Michigan.

She also said that she was employed at the Waverly Cabaret 36 Eldridge, no indication.

In order to leave a good impression, I offered to buy the round of drinks. I and myself were engaged to meet with one bottle of "Coleonex Brown" and if Mrs. Perry had a glass of "Italian Vermouth," for which I was afraid. I said, to Mrs. Perry, I told Mrs. Perry that I had made previous arrangements to meet Helen Wilson and George here. She replied, "I know all about it and don’t care why they are not here." At this moment, the telephone rang. Mrs. Perry said, "Your hurry George, the two women are here waiting for you, and they made business." I took a book that contained names. Mrs. Perry said, that all her friends were listed in this book, and so we left Helen Wilson's. We told Mrs. Perry, that we had another engagement and could not wait any longer. She replied, "I can’t see why the girls are not here. They are always on time, and stay here all night. But you two call me any time, and I will have the girls for you."

Some-to-far-farthing as a house of ill-fame.
After entering the place on the 2nd floor we were greeted by three girls and ushered to a table. Immediately after being seated the girls solicited us to purchase of drinks. The waiter was about to take the order when a buzzer rang, and the lights were turned off, and on for three times, and a man acting as manager shouted out: "Standing at a rear staircase, everybody turn that way, everybody." Everybody turned and left the place through a rear stairway. I being the last man to leave, I asked this man [to be manager, what was the trouble. He replied: "Hurry down; this was a surprise, we are expecting the place to be finished."

I saw a man coming out of this place with his coat off and buttoning his pants.
I counted 15 girls in this place, all wearing a loose-fitting costume such as petticoat, pantaloons, and kimono.
This floor was well crowded, and as the men came in they were greeted by the girls and ushered to tables. I counted 20 tables and about 20 men in this place.

Investigations

After entering this place and settling our premises at a table for all ordered drinks, and were served with some by a waiter.

Mr. V. R. and Pollard & myself were served with a tall glass of 'Frasier & Down-Down Brown Bottle, Labeled E. Deluvius non-intoxicating brandy.' Mr. V. and I found bottle with an incised label of "a high".
And Mr. Pollard
with a Sloe Gin Fizz for which I paid $1.30 plus a 25c tip. I tasted the liquor or Mr. V. and some tasted like Gin Fizz.
The waiter said all the gin brandy was
"E. Deluvius Brandy."

I paid amber colored liquid served at the table (apparently a highball).
I paid a soldier sitting at a table near me, who was also served with a glass of amber colored liquid.

I noticed the patrons neat, and done the shaving. Among instances the couple stood still and rubbed their forearms.
I noticed Sediment forming three of them.
bring girls, the music entertainers sang from their hit that [blackened] and took up collections.
There were approximately 250 people sitting at tables, young and old, some of which were sitting very good. [Apparently interrupted]
At one table I saw a child about 8 yrs old accompanied by two men and two women.

Investigation

After entering this place, and setting our order at a table, for our ordered lunch, and straight away, my self, ordered drink, and pen a string, and by a waiter (agreeable), bought about half an hour for about 150 lbs. 2.45p (being 2 dark hair gray with black and slightly bold beard and of Jewish descent). I was served with a Manhattan cocktail in a small tea cup. [Similarity to a tea cup in a Chinese restaurant] for which I paid 40c.

Drn V: was served by same waiter with a similar cup of a dry-martini. For which Drn V paid 40c. I tasted the drink and some tasted very strange.

I asked the same waiter if he could keep my wife with a half pint of good whiskey, and he said “yes.” He poured it, turned, and handed me a 1/2 pint bottle of “Old Elk” whiskey “wrapped in a napkin, for which I paid $1.80 to the waiter 75c.

From
There were about 40 people at the floor, all seated at different tables.

I saw amber colored liquid served at other tables.

I also saw a soldier in uniform sitting at a table.

I noticed the entertainers and patrons, riding and doing the chimney, and also the entertainers drank with the patrons.

Iry U. also ordered and was served with a glass of lager beer, he paid 25.

I tasted all drinks served, and each drink containing distilled spirits. I gave the crew 50 cents for watching over masthead.

PEN
Committee of Fifteen Cattlemen, P. Thrasher
804 Old St.
Chicago, Ill.
Boston!

I have with tender regret resignation as an investigator of the committee.

My resignation is on account of the unsatisfactory and inexcusable conduct of the Field office, our chief of staff, of which I will briefly state the following.

While returning from Bloomer
Illinois, in a machine Sunday morning at about 4:30 May 5th, 1918, the company with Mr. U. V. Mr. Pallard and J. F. Backwith picked up a woman.

This woman, for fornication, field in the lap and kissed her for about one hour and a half,
in a manner unbecoming.

a gentleman, and an investigator for the Committee.

I also wish to state, that due to Goldfried's uncooperative and general principl of a man holding this office as a chief of staff, are untrustworthy and such that I can not comply with them any longer.

I do have the honor to say, that I have honorably served in the United States Military Service, and while in that service, I was treated as a gentleman, by my superiors.

I also wish to state, that on April 12th 1918, Mr. Goldfried participated in a gambling game in a saloon at 3156 W. Lake St. and found him good money, and he told me that he lost $4000.00, he stayed in this saloon two hours and after we left, sir, told me not to report the fact that he gambled.

Also I wish to state that after I received a message from Mr. W. to inform Mr. Goldfinch, that I was in receipt of a rule from the Committee to remove those that are related to each other, when I asked why, he replied, that it might be something crooked.

I have only mentioned a few reasons for resigning, but if necessary could write others.

Regarding the quiet that is going on, I have reason to hope that the Committee will help me secure another position, not having another position in mind.

Yours very respectfully,

George Addick
