Observation
On this date I went to a saloon at 170 W. Washington St. to get the telephone number of Frank Brown. I was told it was 5066.

This place is run by Joe Connolly and Bob Golden. They formerly ran a saloon on Deming St., between 3rd and 4th Sts. and women were allowed in the basement of the saloon.

Golden was arrested about three years ago by the government for receiving whiskey and was sent to the house of correction for one year.

Connolly was the partner of Walter J. O'Brien who was sent to jail for graft. Connolly was discharged from the police dept. for graft.

Connolly is on the list for parole agent.

Investigations

After being seated and served with some drinks Mr. X entered into a conversation with waiter #3, whom Mr. X knows as "Mike".

Mr. X asked Mike if he knew of any girls and he replied, "yes but they were all escorted now." But he knew one who was a hustler, but she was with a man now but he could get her phone number.

He then left our table and went to another table where he spoke to two women.

Returning to our table again, he gave us a telephone number, "Superior 543" and said "to ask for Kathern" and then said he had "fix it up with Kathern for us."

We saw intermingling of patrons and suggestive dancing.

While standing at the bar, drinking a glass of beer, we saw two unescorted women in the cafe whom we beckoned for us to come in.

We did so, and the women said their names were "Anna," and "Madge."

After being seated and served with drinks Anna solicited me to prostitution for the sum of $3.00 she said "I will give you a good job, and make you like it."

Anna apparently had another trick for the night as she told me to see her Friday night and I saw Anna called another man from the bar room and spoke to him.

We saw Anna and Madge soliciting men from the bar.
We also saw women drinking at the bar and dancing in the boudoir.
The dancing was suggestive, and patrons appeared to be intoxicated and were also singing Germans songs in German.
