same to operating as a disorderly saloon

We were invited into the rear part of the saloon (on a balcony) by 3 women one of whom was with a man whom we knew on the ball astride near Randolph.
The woman with the man said her name was Margaret. The other women said their names were "B" Olsen and Miss Hutzen.

"B" Olsen solicited me to prostitution for the sum of $5.00.
I heard Miss Hutzen solicited me
to prostitution for the sum of $5.00.
We were served two rounds of drinks for which I paid 90¢ for one
round and Inv. V paid 90¢ for the other round.

The women gave us their telephone number as Column 413, telling us to be sure and call them up, as they could take us to a safe place at 18th and Michigan Ave. run by Mrs. Myers. This place they said had police protection.

S. S.

Note: Column 413 is under the name of Harry N. Wilson at 2723 Indiana Ave.

pam to be operating as a disorderly saloon.

We first entered this place at 10:10 P.M. We then asked a waiter who is known to us as Frank, if he could lay us up with a couple of "skirts". He told us to come back in about a half an hour and he would lay us up.

We entered again at 11:01 P.M., and sat in the rear room. Soon two unincumbered women entered whom Frank introduced to us as "Sadie" and Elsie.

After we had two rounds of drinks Sadie solicited me to prostitution for the sum of $500. I heard Elsie solicit Inv. V to prostitution.

The girls said that they would take us to a private place in Centra.

Before we left 3 unescorted women entered and bought drinks.

S. S.

(Sir E. S. on 342 Centra at this date)
We were admitted into the tanyon by two Irish patriots who told us that our men were being attacked. They were advised to report to the army and requested to return to the army.

came to be operating as a house of ill fame

We were taken to this address by two girls who said their names were Rose and Carrie. While standing alone at Madison and LaSalle St., Eve came up and talked to me. She asked me to walk to Wells St. and meet her friend. When I met her friend, who said her name was Carrie, both invited me to Vogelsangs restaurant at 177 W. Madison St.

I then called in Eve. V. After a round of drinks both girls solicited both of us to prostitution for the sum of 30c plus 10c for a room, and invited us to 59 East Grand Ave.

When we arrived at 59 E Brandon and while standing in the door way and, because we hesitated they both solicited us again to prostitution for the same amount, and insisted that we should go to bed with them.

Came to be operating as a house of ill fame.

In response to our knock a colored woman answered who acted as a maid. When we asked for Ruth she told us to wait a moment as Ruth was busy. Soon a girl about 20 yrs old came to the door. When I asked her if her name was Ruth she said "yes." I then told her that a friend of hers told me to call on them. She then asked me if her friend had told what she charged. When I said he had not she said her price was $2.00 for a short time. She said that she was busy.

came to be operating as a disorderly saloon

We were taken to this place by a woman whom we met on the street and who is known to Sm. V. as Ella.

After a round of drinks she solicited both of us to prostitution for the sum of $5.00. She said that she would take us to his flat then only she had a date with a fellow who would be in any moment.

She gave us the telephone number of the saloon asking us to call her up there in about an hour and a half. When we called up later the man who answered said Ella had left.

Marz's Beer Kitchen "Jack" inmate

V.

Came to be operating as a disorderly saloon.

After we were seated a young woman about 25 years old, sitting at a table next to ours, smiled and flirted with us.

Soon she came up to our table and told us that she was not allowed to sit with us, but that if we were looking for a good time she would take us to a place on the south side.

When I asked her what she charged she said "50c for the jazz and 10c for the room."

She asked us to meet her outside which we did. She said her name was Jack.

We saw 12 other unclothed women here.

came to be operating as a disorderly saloon. We were taken to this place by a girl whom we met at Maros Ben tunnel and who said her name was 'Jack'.

After being served with a round of drinks she solicited me to prostitution for the sum of $5.00, plus $1.00 for a room. We saw 7 undisguised women present, one of whom appeared to be drunk.

"Jack" told us that we could meet him at Maros Ben Tunnel 20 M (Tuesday July 16th)

Same to be operating as a disorderly saloon.

As we were passing the alley which runs east from LaSalle Street and behind the above saloon, two girls who had just entered the alley beckoned for us to follow.

When we entered the saloon we found them sitting alone on a balcony in the rear part.

After a round of drinks they told us that their names were Dotty Allen and Louise.

Both girls solicited us to prostitution for the sum of $300 each.

Dotty gave us their phone number as Douglas 615.

damn to be operating as a disorderly saloon

While passing thru the rear room 2 women who were sitting alone asked us to buy them a drink.

After a round of drinks both women who said their names were Myrtle and Gene, solicited us to prostitution. When I asked them what they charged they said "All the regular amount" and the room extra.

After they said that they would take us to Van Buren + Campbell, when we could get rooms, we all left the saloon

Myrdo, inmate

apparently

does this operation as a disorderly famo

We were taken to this place by two women, who solicited us to prostitution while in a saloon at 151-153 So. Westman and who said their names were Myrdo and Gene.

Upon reaching the second floor and while Myrdo was talking to a woman of the second floor flat. A man came but and became very abusive to Gene.

To avoid trouble we told the woman that we would go and eat first.

They insisted we stay and say that they would treat us right.

Stella Anderson
inmate

Occurred to be operating as a disorderly saloon.

Entering the rear room we found a man and woman sitting at a table.

This woman is known to me as Stella Anderson. I secured evidence against her June 6th, 1914, at the same place, also on the same date at 2103 N. Western

She soon came to our table and solicited us to prostitution for the sum of $2.00.

She said that she would be there with the man she was with at 10:00 P.M.

She gave us her new address as 817 N. California Ave, Apt. 2 - Telephone, Decle 5631.

After a round of drinks we left.
