Uncorrelated women

Women come to be operating as a disorderly house.
After we took seats in cafe, I looked around and saw four uncorrelated women there. They were all served with a round of drinks.

Then of these women started with us and wanted to join us, but they were not permitted to do so by the management.

Soon two of them left this place and beckoned for us to follow them. Meanwhile, another woman met them on the outside and learned from them that on account of no being strangers at this cafe, they were not allowed to join us at our table.

These women told us that they frequented this place uncorrelated and that they are allowed toCADE a fee for prostitution.

Then women gave their names as Kate and Estella and subscribing to prostitution for a price.

During my visit with these women they told room can be rented here in rear of cafe (used as living rooms) for $1.00.

These women gave their names as Lillie and

and that they with the consent of the proprietor shuttle her for prostitution and take their men to bedroom in rear of cafe, for which the prop-

I learned that Bake is a resident inmate here employed as a farm maid and was told I was told that she makes considerable money going to bed with men here.

Investigation

During my visit in the 22nd Street district, covering about 16 hours on the 2nd and 3rd of this month, visited a number of saloons and of those saloons I was unable to purchase intoxicating drinks, only in one instance at 2345 Cottage Square a saloon and cafe, I was told by the waiter (when I purchased a bottle of beer) that he served me the beer with 12 3/4% alcohol.

I found a number of women waiting the streets who appeared to be prostitutes. I saw several women picking men in the vicinity of 23rd Street and Indiana Ave. A woman accosted me at 2205 P St. N. W., corner Indiana Ave, and took me to a flat at 2255 Cottage Grove Ave, where I obtained evidence another woman while passing me in drug store at 1305 E. 22nd St. gave me the high sign and told me to follow her to 2226 Indiana Ave, at this place woman was soliciting men from door way.
I was taken to the second floor and there obtained evidence.
