I came to be operating as a place of ill-fame. While passing these premises, I saw there a woman standing in door way, one of these women who was a slender blonde, stopped me and said "Hello come on in." I stepped in the door way and this woman took my hand and led me up to second floor into a bedroom, where she solicited me to let her perform a certain act on my person, commonly known as the French, for which she made fancy.

When I left this place I saw twenty or X enter this place while I remained in observation on the outside. When he again joined me about five minutes later I gave investigator X notice to this place.

After making connections, presented the place and was admitted into sitting room by a woman named Theresa, where I also met a woman named Fay, the keeper of this flat. Learned that the keeper has a husband living here who is a private detective.

Theresa did not make any direct solicitation for prostitution, however she told me I could have sexual intercourse with her, but not at this flat. It was understood for a price, however she did not name the exact amount. This woman was employed.

The keeper told me that she formerly had a woman here named Margaret and she (Theresa) learned that Margaret entertained men here sexually without her (Theresa) knowledge.

My opinion is that Theresa who resides here is entertaining men here sexually for a price with the knowledge of the keeper.

Same operating as a house of ill fame.
We were admitted into a middle bedroom by a woman who gave her name
as Aileen Wilson.

While here this woman solicited both of us to prostitution for which she made me a price of $50.

This woman told me that she practiced prostitution here with the permission of the keepin of this flat, who name I did not learn.

In connection with Aileen Wilson was the phone by using a phone number given investigator X by a prostitute named Jane.

Liquor Violation

While in company with three unescorted prostitutes who gave their names as Jessie, Sarah and Quella and whose names I will not write, we ordered and were served by Peter Nielsen the proprietor with two bottles of straight whiskey containing five drinks each round for which he charged us 30¢ a drink.

Squadron's cafe

Transmontane women (not in it)

As we entered a cafe, we were asked by two unaccompanied women to take a seat with them.

The man joined these women and they immediately solicited me to buy drinks and they ordered one quart bottle of wine and we ordered 2 bottles of beer. I then told the waiter to cut each the wine and bring us all beer.

When the waiter came back he opened 2 bottles of near beer and a quart bottle of wine which was a soft drink and then demanded $250 from me, which I refused to pay.

The waiter then took the wine back and brought two glasses of wine for the women.
To actualize our frontier, I find one office we need, namely, to have each man and woman act as a producer, for their own sustenance. This we must all do, to save the rest. It is a matter of life and death to every man to make what he needs, and be self-supporting.

From Eliza Read to Geo. Washington, July 7, 1791.
